the late MR. JOHN SCHUTT, this small work is, by permission of His Honor Mr. Justice Schutt, respectfully dedicated.

PREFACE

From his long experience in the Supreme Court Library, Melbourne, during which he was constantly engaged in helping lawyers to discover where to find their law, Mr. Fuhrman is, in my opinion, eminently fitted for the task of writing a book such as this. I have myself assisted in revising the work, and can testify that it is marked by the exactness and care which those who know the author would expect. A practical proof of the value of the book was given by the frequent use of the manuscript in the Library during a period of several months.

(3) There shall also be kept and used at the Principal Registry and at the several District Registries such other seals as are required for the business of the Court. Such seals shall be in such form and shall be kept in such custody as the Chief Justice directs.

(4) All documents and all exemplifications and copies thereof purporting to be sealed with any such seal shall in all parts of the Commonwealth be receivable in evidence without further proof of the seal.

(a) As to use of Seals, see s. 4, infra.
As to use of Great Seal, see Order LVII., r. 1.
As to keeping an Office Seal at every Registry; see Order LVII., r. 2.

(a) When the writ or other process has been signed by the Registrar, or his Clerk, and is sealed with the proper seal, it is thereupon deemed to be issued; see Order LVII., r. 3.

District Registries.

Proceedings in District Registries. Jud. Act 1873, sec. 61.

6.—(1) Subject to this Act and to Rules of Court, writs of summons for the commencement of causes in the High Court may be issued in any Registry, and every Registrar shall issue such writs (a) when required, and unless an order to the contrary is made by the High Court or a Justice all such further proceedings as may and ought to be taken by the respective parties to the cause, down to and including final judgment and execution, may be taken and recorded in the District Registry in which the cause is pending.

English Rules, O. 12, rr 5-7.

(2) Provided that if a defendant against whom a writ is issued in a District Registry neither resides nor carries on business in the State in which the Registry is situated, he may appear (b) either at that Registry or at the Principal Registry.

(3) If any defendant appears at the Principal Registry the cause shall, subject to the power of transfer, proceed in that Registry, and the proceedings in the cause shall be transmitted thereto by the District Registrar in the manner directed by the next following section.

(a) Writs of summons for the commencement of causes should notify the option the defendant has as to entering an appearance; see Order V., r. 11.

(b) As to appearance generally: see Order X.

As to times for appearing; see Order V., r. 14.

Transfer of causes from one Registry to another.

Ib. s. 65.

7.—(1) Any party to a cause in the High Court may at any time apply to the Court or a Justice for an order that the cause be transferred from the Registry in which it is pending, if that is not the Principal Registry, to the Principal Registry or some other Registry, or from the Principal Registry to a District Registry, and the Court or Justice may in his discretion make an order (a) accordingly.

(2) Thereupon the proceedings and such original documents (if any) as are filed in the Registry in which the cause is pending shall be transmitted by the Registrar of that Registry to the Registry to which the cause is ordered to be transferred, and the cause shall thenceforth proceed in that Registry in the same manner as if it had been there originally commenced, and may thereafter be again transferred in like manner to any other Registry.

(a) Where a case has been called on in one State and transferred to another for argument by order of the Court, and there argued by counsel originally briefed, the Registrar ought, on the taxation of the costs, to allow such sums for counsel's fees as will be reasonable, taking into consideration the distance travelled or the length of time counsel are compelled to be absent from their own State. Where such counsel are briefed in more than one case to be heard at the same sitting, that fact should be taken into consideration: The Commissioner of Income Tax (Q.) v. Bank of New South Wales (18 C.L.R. 207 [1914]).

Temporary transfer

8.—(1) When any party to a cause desires to make an application therein to the Court or a Justice, and no Justice of the High Court is present in the place where the Registry in which the cause is pending is situated, the party may lodge with the Registrar of that Registry a request that the cause be transferred (a), for the purpose of the application only, to some other Registry at a place where a Justice is present or is appointed to sit, and the cause shall thereupon without further order be transferred accordingly.

(2) The [District]* Registrar shall thereupon transmit the request to such other Registry together with such documents as are necessary for the purpose of the application.

(3) The application may then be heard and disposed of at such other Registry, and as soon as it has been disposed of the cause shall without further order be retransferred to the first-mentioned [District]* Registry, and all documents relating to it shall be retransmitted to that Registry.

(4) No fee shall be payable in respect of any such transfer or retransfer.

(5) In any of the cases mentioned in this section, if the application is to be made upon notice to any person, the notice may be given of the application to be made before the Court or a Justice at the Registry to which the cause is transferred, on a day to be fixed by the [District]* Registrar of the first-mentioned Registry.

* This Section was amended by Act No. 13, s. 3, 1903, which provided "that Sub-sections (2), (3) and (5) of Section 8 and Sections 9, 10, 11 should be amended by omitting the word 'District' wherever it occurs therein."

(a) Applications for increase of amount of security under s. 36 of the High Court Procedure Act must be made with expedition, whether there is a Justice of the High Court sitting in the State where the appeal is to be heard or not.

On the 29th December, 1903, the plaintiff filed notice of intention to appeal to the High Court from decisions of the Supreme Court of New South Wales, and deposited £50 as security for the due prosecution of the appeal. On the 4th February the defendants in each case had notice of plaintiff's appeal, and on the 8th March took out a summons for increased security under s. 36 of this Act. There was no Justice of the High Court sitting in Sydney until 14th March, but in the interval Justices of the High Court had been sitting in Hobart and Melbourne.

HELD (per Griffith, C. J.) that the applications were made too late, and that the applicants should have proceeded under s. 8, by taking out a summons in Sydney as early as possible, and having the case transferred, for the purpose of hearing the summons, to Hobart or Melbourne: McLaughlin v. Daily Telegraph Newspaper Co., Ltd.; McLaughlin v. Vale of Clwyd Coal Mining Co., Ltd. (1 C.L.R. 143 [1904]).

Transmission of documents by telegraph.
Qd. Insolvency Act of 1874.

9.—(1) In any such case as mentioned in the last preceding section, any party desiring to make an immediate application to the High Court or a Justice may, instead of requesting that the cause be transferred to such other Registry, require the [District]* Registrar to transmit by telegraph to such other Registry the contents of all such documents filed in the first-mentioned [District]* Registry as are necessary for the purpose of the application, and the [District]* Registrar shall, on payment by such party of the expense of transmission, transmit them accordingly.

(2) The copy so received by telegraph shall be filed in such other Registry, and shall be receivable in evidence for the purpose of the application to the same extent as the original documents would be admissible.

(3) If the application is to be made upon notice to any person, the notice shall state that the documents will be transmitted by telegraph to such other Registry.

(4) If any person to whom notice is given requires any other documents to be transmitted by telegraph to such other Registry, they shall be transmitted and shall be receivable in evidence in like manner.

(5) Evidence of service of the notice may also be so transmitted.

* This Section was amended by Act No. 13, s. 3, 1903, which provided "that Sub-sections (2), (3) and (5) of Section 8 and Sections 9, 10, 11, should be amended by omitting the word 'District' wherever it occurs therein."

Orders may be sent by telegraph

10.—When in any of the cases mentioned in the two last preceding sections an order has been made by the Court or a Justice at a Registry other than that in which the cause is pending, the Registrar of that Registry shall at the request and expense of either party and without payment of any further fee inform the [District]* Registrar of the first-mentioned Registry by telegraph of the effect of the order, and thereupon and without waiting for receipt of the order full effect shall be given to the order.

* This Section was amended by Act No. 13, s. 3, 1903, which provided "that Sub-sections (2), (3) and (5) of Section 8 and Sections 9, 10, 11 should be amended by omitting the word 'District' wherever it occurs therein."

Orders may be sent by telegraph

11. In any of the cases aforesaid a [District]* Registrar may, by consent of the parties, instead of transmitting by telegraph the full contents of any document transmit a summary thereof certified by him to be complete and correct, and the summary may be received and acted upon by the Court or Justice as if it were a copy of the original document.

* This Section was amended by Act No. 13, s. 3, 1903, which provided "that Sub-sections (2), (3) and (5) of Section 8 and Sections 9, 10, 11, should be amended by omitting the word 'District' wherever it occurs therein.

Trial of Issues.

Trial without jury. C.S. 689.

12. In every suit in the High Court, unless the Court or a Justice otherwise orders, the trial (a) shall be by a Justice without a jury.

(a) Every trial of an issue of fact with a jury shall be held before a single Justice unless it is specially ordered to be held before two or more Justices; see Order XXXIII., r. 5, as to procedure; see Order XXXIII., r. 5.

Power of court to direct trial of issues. Qd. S.C. Act, s. 61.

13. The High Court or a Justice may, in any suit in which the ends of justice appear to render that mode of inquiry expedient, direct the trial with a jury of the suit or any issue of fact, (a) and may for that purpose make all such orders and issue all such writs and cause all such proceedings to be had and taken as the Court or Justice thinks necessary; and upon the finding of the jury the Court or Justice may give such decision and pronounce such judgment as the case requires.

(a) See Order XXXIII., r. 3.

As to trial of issues of fact without pleading; see Order XXXII., r. 9.

Issue and new trials.
Ib. , 62.

14. In any case in which the High Court or a Justice is authorized to direct the trial of an issue or in which a new trial is granted, the Court or Justice may impose such conditions on the parties respectively and may direct such admissions to be made by them or either of them for the purpose of the trial or new trial as are just ; and in the case of a new trial may grant it either generally or on some particular points only as the Court or Justice thinks fit, and may order that the testimony of any witness examined at the former trial may be read from the Justice's notes instead of his being again examined in open court.

Juries.
U.S. 800.

15.—(1) The laws of each State relating to the qualification of jurors, the preparation of jury lists and jury panels, the summoning, attendance, and impanelling of juries, the number of jurors, the right of challenge, the discharge of juries, the disagreement of jurors, and the remuneration of jurors, for the purposes of the trial of civil matters pending in the Supreme Court of that State, or relating to any other matters concerning jurors after they have been summoned or sworn, shall extend and be applied to civil matters in which a trial is had with a jury in the High Court in that State, so that the lists of jurors shall be deemed to be made as well for the purposes of the High Court as of the Supreme Court of the State.

(2) But the panel of jurors shall be made out and the jurors shall be summoned by officers of the Commonwealth.

(3) Every officer of a State who has the custody of any jury list shall furnish a copy thereof to the proper officer of the Commonwealth on demand and on payment of a reasonable fee.

* This Section was added by the Act No. 5 of 1915, which provides that it "shall remain in operation during the present war and six months thereafter and no longer."

(a) The High Court has original jurisdiction in trials of indictments for offences against the laws of the Commonwealth. Quaere, whether s. 18 of the Judiciary Act 1903-1915, which authorises a Justice of the High Court sitting alone, whether in Court or in Chambers, to reserve any question for the consideration of the Full Court, applies to a Justice sitting in the conduct of a criminal trial : Rex v. Kidman (20 C.L.R. 425 [1915]).

(2) But the panel of jurors shall be made out and the jurors shall be summoned by officers of the Commonwealth.

(3) Every officer of a State who has the custody of any jury list shall furnish a copy thereof to the proper officer of the Commonwealth on demand and on payment of a reasonable fee.

* This Section was added by the Act No. 5 of 1915, which provides that it "shall remain in operation during the present war and six months thereafter and no longer."

(3) The High Court or a Justice may at any time for sufficient reason order that any particular facts in issue in a cause may be proved by affidavit at the trial, or that the affidavit of any person may be read at the trial of a cause, on such conditions in either case as are just. But such an order shall not be made if any party to the cause desires in good faith that the proposed witness shall attend at the trial for cross-examination. English rules of 1883, O. 37 R. 1.

(a) As to affidavits generally; see Order XXXV.

As to cross examination of a deponent; see Order XXXV., r. 1.

(2) The Court or a Justice may make an order declaring that any proceeding is valid notwithstanding any such defect or irregularity.

(a) Non-compliance with any rule of Court, or any rule of practice, not to render proceedings void, unless the Court or a Justice so directs; see Order LVII., r. 6.

Therefore, an order of the High Court for payment of the costs of an appeal from the Supreme Court of a State will not be enforced by attachment. Nor will the payment of the costs of an appeal in which a new trial is ordered be made a condition precedent to the new trial: Lysaght Bros. & Co., Ltd. v. Falk, No. 2, 2 C.L.R. 443 [1905]).

Interpleader.

27. When any claim is made to property taken in execution upon process issued out of the High Court, the Marshal or his Deputy may take in the Supreme Court of the State in which the property is situated the same proceedings by way of interpleader as if the process had been issued out of that Supreme Court; and that Supreme Court and the Judges thereof shall have jurisdiction to entertain and determine the matter.

28. Part III.—Appeals to the High Court.

Security.

Parties to Actions.

1. Generally.

Persons claiming jointly severally or in the alternative may be plaintiffs.

1. All persons in whom any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same transaction or series of transactions is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally, or in the alternative, may be joined in an action as plaintiffs, provided that the case is such that if such persons brought separate actions some common question of law or fact would arise.

Provided that the Court or a Justice may, in any case in which separate and distinct questions arise, order that separate pleadings be delivered, or separate trials had, or may make such other order as is just.

When several plaintiffs are joined in an action, judgment may be given for such of them as are entitled to relief for such relief as they are entitled to, without any amendment. But the defendant shall be entitled to his costs occasioned by joining as a plaintiff any person who is not entitled to relief, unless the Court or a Justice in disposing of the costs otherwise directs.

As to adding or striking out parties; see rr., 2, 9, 10.

Cross-claim misjoinder

3. When any person has been improperly or unnecessarily joined as a plaintiff in an action, the defendant shall be entitled to the same relief by way of cross-claim or set-off against the other plaintiffs or any of them, as if that person had not been so joined, notwithstanding such misjoinder or any proceeding consequent thereon.

As to cross actions, see Orders XVI. r. 5, XVII., r. 3, XX., r. 9.

Persons to be joined as defendants.

4. All persons may be joined as defendants against whom the right to any relief is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally, or in the alternative. 6. The plaintiff may, at his option, join as parties to the same action all or any of the persons severally, or jointly and severally, liable on any one contract, including parties to bills of exchange and promissory notes.

7. When a plaintiff is in doubt as to the person from whom he is entitled to relief, he may join two or more persons as defendants, to the intent that the questions as to which, if any, of the defendants is liable, and as to what relief the plaintiff is entitled to may be determined as between all parties.

Numerous persons.

8. When there are numerous persons having the same interest in the subject-matter of a cause or matter, one or more of such persons may sue, and the Court or a Justice may authorise one or more of such persons to be sued, or may direct that one or more of such persons shall defend, in such cause or matter, on behalf or for the benefit of all persons so interested.

Misjoinder and nonjoinder.

9. The Court shall not refuse to determine a cause or matter by reason only of the misjoinder or nonjoinder of parties, and the Court may in every cause or matter deal with the matter in controversy so far as regards the rights and interests of the parties actually before it.

Striking out and adding parties.

The Court or a Justice may, at any stage of the proceedings, either upon or without the application of either party, and on such terms as appear to the Court or Justice to be just, order that the names of any persons improperly joined, whether as plaintiffs or as defendants, be struck out, or that the names of any persons who ought to have been joined, or whose presence before the Court may be necessary in order to enable the Court effectually and completely to adjudicate upon and settle all the questions involved in the cause or matter, be added, either as plaintiffs or defendants.

11. When a defendant is added or substituted, he shall, unless he waives such service, be served with the amended originating proceeding, or with notice in lieu of service, as the case may be, and the proceedings as against him shall, unless otherwise ordered, be deemed to have begun only on such service being effected.

SERVICE OUT OF THE JURISDICTION.

In certain cases service of writ, &c., allowed out of jurisdiction

1. An originating proceeding, or notice thereof, may be served out of the jurisdiction of the Court in any of the following cases, that is to say:—

(1) When the subject matter of the cause, so far as it concerns the party to be served, is—

(c) Any instrument or thing affecting any such land, property, shares, or stock:

(2) When any contract in respect of which relief is sought in the cause against the party by way of enforcing, rescinding, dissolving, annulling, or otherwise affecting, the contract, or by way of recovering damages or obtaining any other remedy against the party for a breach thereof, was made or entered into within the Commonwealth;

(3) When the relief sought against the party is in respect of a breach within the Commonwealth of a contract, wherever made; or

(4) When any act or thing sought to be restrained or recovered or for which damages are sought to be recovered, was done or is to be done or is situate within the Commonwealth.

As to foreigners residing out of the jurisdiction.

3. When the originating proceeding is an instrument under the seal of the Court, and the defendant is neither a British subject nor in British Dominions, notice of the instrument, and not the instrument itself, is to be served upon him. Such service shall have the same force and effect as service of a writ of summons or other originating proceeding upon a British subject; and by leave of the Court or a Justice, upon their or his being satisfied by affidavit as aforesaid, the like proceedings may be had and taken thereupon.

Conditional appearance.

13. A defendant in any cause may enter a conditional appearance, denying the jurisdiction of the Court, and shall not thereby be deemed to have submitted to the jurisdiction, except as to the costs occasioned by the appearance or by any application under this Rule; and he may thereupon apply to the Court or Justice for an order to set aside the service upon him of the originating proceeding, or the service upon him of notice thereof, as the case may be.

Or he may make such application before appearing, and without entering a conditional appearance.

If he enters a conditional appearance, and does not make such application promptly, the Court or Justice may set aside the conditional appearance with costs, to be paid by the defendant by whom it was entered.

ORDER XI.

Default of Appearance.

Default of appearance by infant or person of unsound mind

1. When no appearance is entered to a writ of summons for a defendant who is an infant or a person of unsound mind who has not been so found or declared, the plaintiff shall, before proceeding with the action against the defendant, apply to the Court or a Justice for an order that some proper person be appointed as guardian of the defendant, by whom he may appear and defend the action.

Notice of application

Such an order shall not be made unless it appears that the writ of summons was duly served, and that notice of the application was, after the expiration of the time allowed for appearance, and at least six clear days before the day in such notice named for hearing the application, served upon or left at the dwelling-house of the person with whom or under whose care the defendant is then residing, and also, if the defendant is an infant not residing with or under the care of his father or guardian, served upon or left at the dwelling-house of the father or guardian, if any, of the infant, unless the Court or Justice at the time of hearing the application dispenses with the last-mentioned service.

When a guardian has been appointed, he shall have the same time for appearance after the service of the order on him as if it were a writ of summons.

As to actions by and against persons under a disability, see Order II., r. 12, et seq.

As to entry of appearance by persons under a disability, see Order X., r. 13, et seq.

As to the times limited for appearance to Writs of Summons, see Order V., r. 14.

Default of appearance generally

2. When a defendant fails to appear to a writ of summons, and the plaintiff is desirous of proceeding upon default of appearance under any of the following Rules of this Order, he shall, before taking such proceeding upon default, file an affidavit of service of the writ, or of notice in lieu of service, as the case may be.

As to default of appearance of the defendant at the trial, see Order XXXIII., r. 16.

Liquidated demand indorsed

3. When the writ of summons is indorsed for a debt or liquidated demand only, and the defendant fails, or all the defendants, if more than one, fail, to appear thereto, the plaintiff may enter final judgment against such defendant or defendants for any sum not exceeding the sum indorsed on the writ, together with interest at the rate claimed by the indorsement at the rate agreed upon, if any, or, if no rate is claimed to have been agreed upon, at the rate of five per centum per annum, to the date of the judgment, and costs.

As to fee payable on entering judgment, see Scale of Fees, sub-title "Drawing Up and Entering Judgments and Orders."

Liquidated demand: Several defendants.

4. When the writ is indorsed for a debt or liquidated demand, and there are several defendants, of whom some appear to the writ, and others fail to appear, the plaintiff may enter final judgment as by the last preceding Rule provided against the defendants so failing to appear.

Where judgment entered against any defendant it does not prejudice plaintiff's right to proceed on action against the others, see r. 10, infra.

Detention of goods: Damages.

5. When the writ is indorsed with a claim for detention of goods and pecuniary damages, or either, and the defendant fails, or all the defendants, if more than one, fail to appear, the plaintiff may enter interlocutory judgment against such defendant or defendants, and a writ of inquiry may issue to assess the value of the goods and the damages, or either, as the case may be, in respect of the causes of action disclosed by the indorsement on the writ. But the Court or a Justice, instead of issuing a writ of inquiry, may order that the value and the damages, or either, shall be ascertained in any other way which the Court or Justice directs.

As to writs of inquiry and references as to damages, see Order XXXIII., r. 25.

The fee payable on sealing a writ of inquiry is 10/-.

Several defendants.

6. When the writ is indorsed as in the last preceding Rule mentioned, and there are several defendants, of whom some appear to the writ, and others fail to appear, the plaintiff may enter interlocutory judgment against the defendants so failing to appear. And in that case the value of the goods and the damages, or either, as the case may be, may be assessed, as against the defendants suffering judgment by default, at the same time as the trial of the action or issue therein against the other defendants. But the Court or a Justice may order that instead of proceeding to such trial, the value and the damages, or either, shall be ascertained by a writ of inquiry as directed by the last preceding Rule, or in any other way which the Court or Justice directs.

As to writs of inquiry and references as to damage, see Order XXXIII., r. 25.

Liquidated demand and detention of goods and damages.

7. When the writ is indorsed with a claim for detention of goods and pecuniary damages, or either, and is further indorsed for a debt or liquidated demand, and any defendant fails to appear to the writ, the plaintiff may enter final judgment against him for the debt or liquidated demand, with interest and costs, and may also enter interlocutory judgment for the value of the goods and the damages, or either, as the case may be, and may proceed as provided in Rules 5 and 6 of this Order.

As to writs of inquiry and references as to damages, see Order XXXIII., r. 25.

As to staying proceedings, see Order XLIV.

Default of appearance in actions not otherwise specially provided for

9. In all actions not by this Order otherwise specially provided for, in case any defendant does not appear within the time limited by the writ for appearance, the plaintiff may, upon filing a proper affidavit of service and a statement of claim, proceed in the action as if the defendant had appeared.

As to filing statement of claim in Registry, when no appearance entered, see Order XVII., r. 7.

Effect of judgment by default

10. In any case in which a plaintiff enters judgment under the provisions of this Order against any defendants who fail to appear, the entry of judgment shall not, nor shall the issue of execution thereon, prejudice his right to proceed in the action against the other defendants.

As to entry of judgment against one of several defendants, see rr. 4, 6.

ORDER XII.

Change of Parties.

Action not abated where cause of action continues

1. A cause or matter shall not become abated by reason of the marriage, death, or insolvency of any of the parties, if the cause of action survives or continues, and shall not become defective by the assignment, creation, or devolution of any estate or title pendente lite.

As to parties generally, see Order 2.

In case of marriage, &c., or devolution of estate, Court may order successor to be made a party or served with notice.

2. In case of the marriage, death, or insolvency, or devolution of estate by operation of law, of any party to a cause or matter, the Court or a Justice may, if it is necessary for the complete settlement of all the questions involved, order that the husband, personal representative, trustee, or other successor in interest, if any, of the party shall be made a party, or shall be served with notice in such manner and form as hereinafter prescribed, on such terms as are just, and may make such order for the disposal of the cause or matter as is just.

3. In case of an assignment, creation, or devolution of any estate or title pendente lite, the cause or matter may be continued by or against the person to or upon whom the estate or title has come or devolved.

Order to carry on proceedings

4. When by reason of marriage, death, or insolvency, or any other event occurring after the commencement of a cause or matter, and causing a change or transmission of interest or liability, or by reason of any person interested coming into existence after the commencement of the cause or matter, it becomes necessary or desirable that any person not already a party should be made a party, or that any person already a party should be made a party in another capacity, an order that the proceedings shall be carried on between the continuing parties and the new party may be obtained ex parte, either by any continuing party, or by any person who is made a party, on application to the Court or a Justice, upon an allegation of such change, or transmission of interest or liability, or of such person interested having come into existence. (a)

If the party applying to be made a party as plaintiff is an infant, the application must be made by him by his next friend.

As to service on new parties of the order continuing proceedings and the indorsement thereon of notice requiring entry of appearance, see r. 5, infra.

As to discharge of order on application of person so affected, see rr. 6, 7.

(a) Where it became necessary, after the institution of an appeal to the High Court, to have the name of a new party substituted for that of the appellant, there being no provision for such a case in the Appeal Rules, the High Court made an order analogous to that prescribed by Rule 4 of Order XII., Part I, of the Rules of the High Court (Rule 4 of Order XL., Part 1, Rules of the High Court, 1903), that the appeal should be carried on between the new party as the appellant, and the original respondent, and that the proceedings should be amended accordingly: Williams v. Australian Mutual Provident Society (2 C.L.R. 385 [1905]; 11 A.L.R. 438 [1905]).

Service of order to continue action.

5. Every order made under the last preceding Rule shall, unless the Court or Justice otherwise directs, be served upon the continuing parties, and also upon each such new party, unless the person making the application is himself the only new party; and the order shall from the time of such service, subject nevertheless to the next two following Rules, be binding on the person served therewith; and every person served therewith who is not already a party to the cause or matter shall be bound to enter an appearance thereto within the same time and in the same manner as if he had been served with a writ of summons. Notice of such obligation to appear shall be indorsed on the order before service.

As to time limited for appearance to writ, see Order V., r. 14.

As to entry of appearance, see Order X.

As to service of documents generally, see Order LV.

6. When any person who is under no disability, or who is under no disability other than coverture, or who, being under some disability other than coverture, has a guardian ad litem in the cause or matter, is served with an order made under Rule 4 of this Order, he may apply to the Court or a Justice to discharge or vary the order at any time within eight days after the time allowed for appearance.

As to computation of time limited by this rule, see Order LIII.

Computation of time limited by this rule, see Order LIII.

Death of sole plaintiff or defendant

8. When the plaintiff or defendant in a cause dies, and the cause of action survives, but the plaintiff or the person entitled to proceed fails to proceed, the defendant, or the person against whom the cause may be continued, may apply to a Justice for an order requiring the plaintiff or the person entitled to proceed to do so within such time as is ordered: And in default the Justice may order the cause to be dismissed for want of prosecution, with or without costs, as in other cases.

For dismissal for want of prosecution through default of pleading, see Order XXVI., r. 1.

ORDER XIII.

Leave to Sign Summary Judgment.

Application for summary judgment.

1. (1) When a defendant appears to a writ of summons specially indorsed under Order V., Rule 1, the plaintiff may, on affidavit made by himself or any other person who can swear positively to the facts verifying the cause of action and the amount claimed, if any, and stating that in his belief there is no defence to the action, apply to a Justice for liberty to enter final judgment for the amount so indorsed, or any part thereof, together with interest, if any, and costs. The Justice may thereupon, unless the defendant, by affidavit or viva voce evidence, or otherwise satisfies him that he has a good defence to the action on the merits, or discloses such facts as entitle him to defend, make an order giving the plaintiff leave to enter judgment accordingly.

(2) If on hearing of an application under this Rule it appears that the plaintiff is not entitled to judgment for the full amount claimed, or for all the relief claimed, the Justice may give the plaintiff leave to enter judgment for any sum which it appears that he is entitled to recover, or for any other relief to which it appears that he is entitled.

(3) When the sum for which leave is given to enter judgment in respect of a claim specially indorsed is not the whole amount for which leave to enter judgment is asked in respect of that cause of action, the Justice may either strike out the residue of the claim in respect of that cause of action or may allow the action to proceed in respect of such residue.

(4) Any defect in the special indorsement may be amended forthwith upon such terms as a Justice may think just.

(5) When an application has been dismissed on the ground of formal defects in the proceedings or in the evidence, a fresh application may be made on amended proceedings.

Under Order V., r. 4, a writ of summons may be specially indorsed with particulars of the nature of the claim, and of the amount if any, sought to be recovered.

As to defence, see Order XX.

As to amendment, see H.C.P. Act, ss. 23, 24; Order XXVIII.

As to amendment of indorsement, see Order V., r. 2.

Application by summons.

2. An application by a plaintiff for leave to enter final judgment under the last preceding Rule shall be made by summons, returnable not less than four clear days after service. Copies of the affidavits intended to be used upon the application, and of all exhibits therein referred to, shall be served with the summons, and no further evidence shall be given on behalf of the plaintiff except by leave of the Justice.

Defendants may show cause.

3. The defendant may show cause against such application by affidavit, or by leave of the Justice by oral evidence, or by offering to bring into Court the sum claimed.

If he shows cause by affidavit, the affidavit shall state whether the defence alleged goes to the whole or to part only, and, if so, what part of the plaintiff's claim.

The Justice may, if he thinks fit, order the defendant, or, in the case of a corporation, any officer thereof to attend and be examined upon oath, or to produce any leases, deeds, books, or documents, or copies of or extracts therefrom.

As to discovery and inspection, see Order XXIX.
As to discovery by a corporation, see Order XXIX., r. 9.
As to production of books, see H.C.P. Act, s. 17.

Judgment for part of claim.

4. If it appears that the defence set up by the defendant applies only to a part of the plaintiff's claim, or that any part of his claim is admitted, the plaintiff shall have judgment forthwith for that part of his claim to which the defence does not apply, or which is admitted, subject to such terms, if any, as to suspending execution, or the payment of the amount levied, or any part thereof, into Court by the Marshal, the taxation of costs or otherwise, as the Justice may think fit; and the defendant may be allowed to defend as to the residue of the plaintiff's claim.

Where one defendant has good defence but other not.

5. If it appears to the Justice that any defendant has a good defence to the action, or ought to be permitted to defend, and that any other defendant has not such defence, and ought not to be permitted to defend, the former may be permitted to defend, and the plaintiff shall be entitled to enter final judgment against the latter, and may issue execution upon such judgment without prejudice to his right to proceed with the action against the former.

As to defence, see Order XX.
As to relief against judgments, see Order XL.

Leave to defend.

6. Leave to defend may be given unconditionally or subject to such terms as to giving security, or as to the time or mode of trial, or otherwise as the Justice may think fit.

As to security, see Order XXVIII.
As to place of trials, see Order XXXIII., r. 1.
As to mode of trial, see Order XXXIII., rr. 2-4.

Summary disposal.

7. On the hearing of an application, the Justice may, with the consent of all parties, dispose of the action in a summary manner.

Directions as to trial.

8. When leave, whether conditional or unconditional, is given to defend, the Justice shall have power to give such directions as to the further conduct of the action as might be given on a summons for directions under Order XV., and may order the action to be forthwith set down for trial.

Costs. 9. When no order is made as to the costs of the application, or when the costs are referred to the Justice at the trial, and no trial afterwards takes place, or no order as to costs is made at the trial, the costs of the application shall be costs in the action.

As to costs generally, see Order LIV.

ORDER XIV.

Order for account. 1. When a writ of summons has been indorsed with a claim for an account (a) under Order V., Rule 6, or when the claim indorsed on a writ of summons involves taking an account, the plaintiff may at any time after appearance, or after the time for entering an appearance has expired, apply to a Justice for an order to take the account.

As to accounts, see Order XXXI.

(a) When a writ has been indorsed with a claim for an account of the money owing on a mortgage and for a foreclosure, the plaintiff is not entitled on an application under the Rules of the High Court, Part I., Order XIV., to an order for foreclosure (*Dalgety & Co. As to notice of trial generally, see Order XXXIII., r. 7, et seq.

Defendant may apply for statement of claim.

3. When the writ is so indorsed, the defendant may, within ten days after appearance, apply to a Justice for an order for the delivery of a statement of claim, and on such application the Justice may order that a statement of claim shall be delivered, in which case the action shall proceed as if no such indorsement had been made; or may order that the action shall proceed to trial without pleadings. In the latter case the Justice may, if he thinks fit, further order that either party shall deliver particulars of his claim or defence within a time to be specified in the order.

If the plaintiff sets up in reply to a set-off or cross-claim any such defence as hereinbefore enumerated, he shall give like notice thereof to the defendant before giving notice of trial.

As to pleading by way of set off and cross action, see Order XVII., r. 3.

ORDER XVII.

Pleading Generally.

Pleading to state material facts and not evidence.

1. Every pleading shall contain a statement, as brief as the nature of the case allows, setting out the material facts on which the party pleading relies to support his claim or defence, as the case may be, but not the evidence by which they are to be proved; and shall, when necessary, be divided into paragraphs, numbered consecutively, and each containing, as nearly as may be, a separate allegation. Dates, sums, and numbers may be expressed in figures or in words. Every pleading shall be signed by the solicitor of the party, or by the party himself if he sues or defends in person.

Costs of prolix pleadings.

The Court or a Justice in adjudging the costs of the action shall at the instance of any party, and may without any request, inquire into any unnecessary prolixity, and may order the costs occasioned by the prolixity to be borne by the party responsible for it.

No pleading is defective on technical ground of want of Form, see r. 28, infra.

The defendant shall, at the time and in the manner prescribed by Order XX., deliver to the plaintiff his defence, if any; and the plaintiff shall, at the time and in the manner prescribed by Order XXII., deliver his reply, if any, to the defence.

A defendant may plead by way of set-off, or set up by way of cross-action, against the claim of the plaintiff or any of the plaintiffs, if more than one, any right or claim arising out of the plaintiff's claim or connected with it, whether the set-off or cross-claim sound in damages or not; and the set-off or cross-claim shall have the same effect as a cross action, so as to enable the Court to pronounce a final judgment in the same action, both on the original claim and on the cross-claim. But the Court or a Justice may strike out a defence by way of set-off or cross-claim, if in the opinion of the Court or Justice the set-off or cross-claim cannot be conveniently disposed of in the pending action, or ought not to be allowed, or may order that it shall be disposed of separately.

As to reliance on distinct grounds of cross-claim, see r. 4.

Relief founded on separate facts.

4. When the plaintiff seeks relief in respect of several distinct claims or causes of complaint founded upon separate and distinct grounds, they shall be stated, as far as may be, separately and distinctly. And the same rule shall apply where a defendant relies upon several distinct grounds of defence or cross-claim founded upon separate and distinct facts.

As to several defences, see r. 12, infra.

Particulars to be given in certain cases.

5. If the party pleading relies on any misrepresentation, fraud, breach of trust, wilful default, or undue influence, and in all other cases in which particulars are necessary, particulars, with dates and items if necessary, shall be stated in the pleading: Provided that, if the particulars are of debt, expenses, or damages, and exceed three folios, the fact shall be so stated, with a reference to full particulars already delivered or to be delivered with the pleading.

As to giving further particulars, see Order XVIII.

Printing pleadings.

6. Pleadings may be either printed or written, or partly printed and partly written.

Delivery by filing.

7. Every pleading or other document required to be delivered to a party, or between parties, shall be delivered at the address for service, to the solicitor of every party who sues or appears by a solicitor, or to the party if he does not sue or appear by a solicitor; but if no appearance has been entered for any party, then the pleading or document shall be delivered by being filed in the Registry.

As to indorsement of address for service on originating proceedings and on memorandum of appearance, see Order I., rr. 3, 4; Order X., rr. 3,4.

8. Every pleading shall be marked on the face with the number of the action, the title of the action, the date of the day on which the pleading is delivered and the description of the pleading, and shall be indorsed with the name and address for service of the solicitor and agent, if any, delivering it, or the name and address for service of the party delivering it if he does not sue or appear by a solicitor.

Plea of "Not guilty by statute" not to be used.

9. The defence of "Not guilty by statute" shall not be used.

Specific denial.

10. Every allegation of fact in any pleading, if not denied specifically or by necessary implication or stated to be not admitted in the pleading of the opposite party, shall be taken to be admitted, except as against an infant or a person of unsound mind.

As to general denial, see r. 15, infra.

As to effect of general denial, see r. 18, infra.

As to effect of denial of contract, see r. 19, infra.

When denials in defence, see Order XX., rr. 1,5.

Conditions precedent to be specified by party denying performance.

11. An averment of the performance or occurrence of all conditions precedent necessary for the case of either party shall be implied in his pleading; and when the performance or occurrence of any condition precedent is denied, the condition must, unless it appears already by implication, be distinctly specified in his pleading by the party denying it.

Several defences or answers.

12. Any party may, without leave, plead any number of separate defences or other replies or answers to the previous pleading of the opposite party.

As to pleading distinct grounds of defence, see r. 5, supra.

Pleadings to raise all grounds of defence or reply.

13. Each party must raise by his pleading all matters of fact which show that the claim of the opposite party is not maintainable, or that a transaction is void or voidable in point of law; and all grounds of defence or reply, as the case may be, must be pleaded which, if not raised, would be likely to take the opposite party by surprise, or would raise issues of fact not arising out of the preceding pleadings, as, for instance, fraud, release, payment, performance, facts showing illegality or invalidity of a contract either by statute or common law, or a Statute of Limitations.

As to payment into Court before or at the time of delivering defence, see Order XXI.

Departure.

14. A pleading shall not raise any new ground of claim, or contain any allegation of fact, inconsistent with the previous pleadings of the party pleading it.

General denial.

15. It is sufficient for a defendant in his statement of defence to deny generally any allegations in the statement of claim.

As to specific denial, see r. 10, supra.

Effect of denial, see rr. 18, 19, infra.

Denial in defence, see Order XX., rr. 1-5.

Confession and avoidance.

16. When a party admits any allegation in the pleading of the opposite party, and sets up other matter in answer thereto, he must, unless he amends his pleading, plead the other matter specifically in a further pleading.

As to amendment of pleadings see Order XXVII.

Joinder of issue.

17. Either party may, in any pleading subsequent to defence, join issue upon the last preceding pleading of the opposite party. Such joinder of issue shall operate as a denial of every material allegation of fact in the pleading upon which issue is joined, but it may except any facts which the party is willing to admit, and shall then operate as a denial of the facts not so admitted.

As to time for joinder of issue, see Order XXII., r. 3.

As to effect of joinder of issue; see Order XXII., r. 4.

Effect of general denial.

18. Subject to the next following Rule and to Order XX., a general denial of an allegation of fact in a previous pleading shall be construed as a denial of the allegation, and of all the alleged circumstances, whether of time, place, amount, or otherwise.

As to specific denials, see r. 10, supra.

General denial, see r., 15, supra.

Effect of denial of contract, see r. 19, infra.

Denial in defence, see Order XX., rr. 1-5.

Effect of denial of contract.

19. When a contract, promise, or agreement, is alleged in any pleading, a bare denial of the same by the opposite party shall be construed only as a denial in fact of the express contract, promise, or agreement alleged, or of the matters of fact from which the same may be implied by law, and not as a denial of the legality or sufficiency in law of the contract, promise, or agreement, whether with reference to any Act, or otherwise, or of the authority of any person by whom the contract, promise, or agreement, is alleged to have been made.

Effect of documents to be stated.

20. When the contents of a document are material, it is sufficient to state the effect thereof as briefly as possible, without setting out the whole or any part thereof, unless the precise words of the document or any part thereof are material.

As to setting out document at length in demurrer, see Order XXIV., r. 6.

Malice, knowledge, &c.,

21. When it is material to allege malice, fraudulent intention, knowledge, or other condition of the mind of any person, it is sufficient to allege the same as a fact without setting out the circumstances from which it is to be inferred.

Notice.

22. When it is material to allege notice to any person of any fact, matter, or thing, it is sufficient to allege the notice as a fact, unless the form or the precise terms of the notice, or the circumstances from which such notice is to be inferred, are material.

Implied contract or relation.

23. When any contract or any relation between any persons is to be implied from a series of letters or conversations, or otherwise from a number of circumstances, it is sufficient to allege the contract or relation as a fact, and to refer generally to the letters, conversations, or circumstances, without setting them out in detail. And if in such case the person so pleading desires to rely in the alternative upon more contracts or relations than one as to be implied from the circumstances, he may state them in the alternative.

Stated or settled account to be alleged.

24. When the cause of action is a stated or settled account, the same must be alleged with sufficient particulars, but when a statement of account is relied on by way of evidence or admission of some other cause of action which is pleaded, the same shall not be alleged in the pleadings.

As to not pleading evidence, see r. 1, supra.

Presumptions of law.

25. A party need not in any pleading allege any matter of fact which the law presumes in his favour, or as to which the burden of proof does not lie upon him, unless it has first been specifically denied by the other party; for example, the consideration for a bill of exchange when the plaintiff sues only on the bill, and not for the consideration as a substantive ground of claim.

Points of law may be raised by pleadings.

26. Any party may raise by his pleading any point of law, and any point so raised shall, if not previously disposed of, be disposed of by the Justice who tries the action, at or after the trial: Provided that by consent of the parties, or by order of the Court or a Justice, made on the application of either party, the same may be set down for hearing and disposed of at any time before the trial.

As to dismissal of action, see r. 27, infra.

As to disposal of questions of law on demurrer, see Order XXIV.

As to special case on questions of law, see Order XXXII.

Dismissal of action.

27. If in the opinion of the Court or Justice the decision of such point of law substantially disposes of the whole action, or of any distinct cause of action, claim of damages, ground of defence, set-off, or cross-claim therein, the Court or Justice may thereupon dismiss the action or give or make such other judgment or order therein as is just.

Technical objection.

28. No technical objection shall be made to any pleading on the ground of any alleged want of form.

As to amendment of defects or errors, see H.C.P. Act, sec. 23.

No proceedings in High Court to be invalidated by formal defect or irregularity, see H.C.P. Act, sec. 24.

As to setting aside proceedings for irregularity, see Order LVII., r. 7.

When judgment pleaded.

29. When a judgment is pleaded the party pleading must, within ten days after demand by the opposite party, deliver to him a copy of the judgment, certified by the proper officer of the Court by which the judgment was given. In default of such delivery, the Court or a Justice may order the pleading to be struck out or amended.

As to computation of time limited by this rule, see Order LIII.

Striking out pleading where no reasonable cause of action or defence disclosed.

30. The Court or a Justice may order any pleading to be struck out, on the ground that it discloses no reasonable cause of action or ground of defence, or that it shows that the action or defence is frivolous or vexatious; and in any such case the Court or a Justice may order that the action be stayed or dismissed, or that judgment be entered as upon default of pleading, as may be just.

See r. 31, infra.

Striking out pleadings in other cases.

31. The Court or a Justice may at any stage of the proceedings order to be struck out or amended any matter in any pleading which is unnecessary or scandalous, or which tends to prejudice, embarass, or delay the fair trial of the action: and may in any such case order the costs of the application to be paid as between solicitor and client.

As to striking out a defence by way of set off or cross claim, see r. 3, supra.

At the request of a defendant, the whole or part of his defence may be struck out, see Order XXV., r. 3.

Where demurrer allowed to part of pleading that part deemed to be struck out, see Order XXIV., r. 11.

As to amendment of pleading, see Order XXVII., r. 3, et seq. H.C.P. Act, Sec. 23.

Notices to plead or set down demurrer

32. Upon every pleading, except a joinder of issue or a demurrer, there shall be indorsed a notice requiring the opposite party to deliver his pleading in reply thereto within the prescribed time.

Upon every demurrer there shall be indorsed a notice requiring the party whose pleading is demurred to to set the demurrer down within ten days for argument.

As to demurrer, see Order XXIV.

ORDER XVIII.

Particulars.

Order for particulars.

1. The Court or a Justice may in any case order either party to deliver to the other a further and better statement of the nature of the claim or defence, or further and better particulars of any matter stated in any pleading, notice, or written proceeding, upon such terms, as to costs and otherwise, as are just. (a)

Effect of order for particulars.

2. The party at whose instance particulars have been delivered under a Justice's order shall, unless the order otherwise provides, have the same length of time for taking any step in the action after the delivery of the particulars that he had at the return of the summons. Save as in this rule provided, an order for particulars shall not, unless the order otherwise provides, operate to stay proceedings, or to give any extension of time.

As to power of Court to enlarge the time for taking any proceedings, see Order LIII., r. 6.

Actions for damage by collision.

Preliminary acts to be filed.

3. In actions for damage by collision between vessels, unless the Court or a Justice otherwise orders, the plaintiff shall within seven days after the commencement of the action, and the defendant shall within seven days after appearance, and before any pleading is delivered, file in the Registry a document to be called a preliminary act, which shall be sealed up, and shall not be opened until ordered by the Court or a Justice, and which shall contain a statement of the following particulars :—

(a) The names of the vessels which came into collisoin, and the names of their masters ;
(b) The time of the collision ;
(c) The place of the collision ;
(d) The direction and force of the wind ;

(p) What sound signals, if any, were heard from the other vessel, and when.

The Court or a Justice may, on the application of either party, order the preliminary acts to be opened at any time and the evidence to be taken thereon without its being necessary to deliver any pleadings ; but in that case, if either party intends to rely on the defence of compulsory pilotage, he may do so, upon giving notice thereof in writing to the other party, within two days from the opening of the preliminary acts or within such further time as the Court or a Justice allows.

The fee payable on filing a preliminary act is 5 /-.

Opening acts.

4. The preliminary acts may be opened as soon as the action has been set down for trial.

As to pleading generally, see Order XVII.
As to amendment of writ, see Order XXVII., rr. 1, 2

Relief claimed to be specifically stated.

2. Every statement of claim shall state specifically the relief which the plaintiff claims, whether singly or in the alternative, and it shall not be necessary to ask for general or other relief, which may always be given, as the Court or a Justice thinks just, to the same extent as if it had been asked for. And the same rule shall apply to any cross-claim made by the defendant in his defence.

As to general rules of pleading, see Order XVII.

As to cross action, see Order XX., rr. 9, 10.

Statement of claim

3. The delivery of statements of claim shall be regulated as follows :—

(a) Subject to the provisions of Order XI., Rule 9, as to filing a statement of claim when the defendant does not appear, a statement of claim need not be delivered unless the defendant at the time of entering his appearance, or within ten days thereafter, gives notice in writing to the plaintiff or his solicitor that he requires a statement of claim to be delivered :

(b) If a statement of claim has not been delivered, and the defendant gives notice requiring the delivery of a statement of claim, the plaintiff shall, unless otherwise ordered by the Court or a Justice, deliver it within six weeks from the time of his receiving such notice :

(c) The plaintiff may deliver a statement of claim, either with the writ of summons or notice in lieu of writ of summons, or at any time afterwards, either before or after appearance, notwithstanding that the defendant has appeared and has not required the delivery of a statement of claim : Provided that, when a defendant has appeared and has not required the delivery of a statement of claim, a statement of claim shall not, without the leave of the Court or a Justice, be delivered later than three months after the appearance has been entered :

(d) When the plaintiff delivers a statement of claim without being required to do so, or the defendant unnecessarily requires a statement of claim to be delivered, the Court or a Justice, if it appears that the delivery of a statement of claim was unnecessary or improper, may make such order as to the costs occasioned thereby as is just.

ORDER XX.

Defence.

Mere denial insufficient.

1. In actions for a debt or liquidated demand in money, a mere denial of the debt is not sufficient.

As to pleading generally, see Order XVII.
As to insufficiency of a general denial, see Order XVII., r. 10.
As to general denial of allegations, see Order XVII., r. 15.

As to payment into Court, see Order XXI., r. 1.
As to defence of tender, see Order XXI., r. 2.

Defences to action for debt or liquidated demand.

3. In actions to recover a debt or liquidated demand under a contract, a defence in denial must deny any matters of fact from which the liability of the defendant is alleged to arise which are disputed; for example, in actions for goods bargained and sold or for goods sold and delivered, the defence must deny the order or contract, the delivery, or the amount claimed; in an action for money received to the use of the plaintiff, it must deny the receipt of the money, or the existence of those facts which are alleged to make such receipt by the defendant a receipt to the use of the plaintiff. (a)

As to effect of a bare denial of contract, see Order XVII., r. 19.

(a) Held by the High Court that where, in an action for compensation for land resumed by the Commonwealth, issue has been joined upon a plea of payment into Court without denial of liability, the only issue is whether the amount paid in is sufficient, and the plaintiff is entitled to that sum in any event: Spencer v. Commonwealth (5 C.L.R. 418 [1906]).

Pleading to Damages.

4. A denial or defence shall not be necessary as to damages claimed or their amount; but the damages shall be deemed to be put in issue in all cases, unless expressly admitted.

Denial of right of person in representative capacity.

5. If any party desires to put in issue the right of any other party to claim as executor or administrator, or as trustee, whether in bankruptcy or insolvency or otherwise, or in any representative or other alleged capacity, or to put in issue the alleged constitution of any partnership firm, he must do so specifically.

Cross-action.

9. When a defendant relies upon any facts or circumstances alleged in the pleadings as establishing a right of cross-action, he must, in his defence, state specifically that he relies on them by way of cross-action.

As to judgment in default of pleading, see Order XXVI.

As to right of cross action, see Order XVII., r. 3.

Answer by way of cross-action.

10. The plaintiff may set up, in reply to a defence by way of cross-action, any matter arising out of the facts alleged in the defence which would be available to him as a defence if the defence were a statement of claim in an action against him, notwithstanding that the reply may in itself be in the nature of a cross-action.

Judgment for balance.

11. When, in any action for a pecuniary demand, a set-off or cross-claim for a pecuniary demand is established as a defence against the plaintiff's claim, the Court or a Justice may, if the balance is in favour of the defendant, give judgemnt for the defendant for such balance, or may otherwise adjudge to the defendant such relief as he is entitled to upon the merits of the case.

Plea in abatement.

Payment into Court.

Defendant may pay money into Court with or without admitting liability.

1. In an action to recover a debt or damages, the defendant may, before or at the time of delivering his defence, or at any later time by leave of the Court or a Justice, pay into Court a sum of money by way of satisfaction, which shall, unless otherwise stated, be taken to admit the cause of action in respect of which the payment is made.(a)

Or he may pay money into Court in respect of any cause of action, with a defence denying liability in respect thereof; in which case the money so paid into Court shall be subject to the provisions of Rule 7 of this Order.

As to payment into Court being stated in defence, see r. 3, infra.

As to notice of payment being served on plaintiff, see r. 4, infra.

As to payment into Court in actions in respect of disputed contracts, see Order XLIII., r. 4.

(a) Held by the High Court that where, in an action of compensation for land resumed by the Commonwealth, issue has been joined upon a plea of payment into Court without denial of liability, the only issue is whether the amount paid in is sufficient, and the plaintiff is entitled to that sum in any event: Spencer v. Commonwealth, (5 C.L.R. 418 [1906]).

Defence of tender.

2. When a defence sets up a tender before action, the sum of money alleged to have been tendered must be paid into Court before the delivery of the defence.

Defence to state payment.

3. Payment into Court shall be signified in the defence, and the claim or cause of action, if any, in satisfaction of which the payment is made shall be specified therein.

Receipt to accompany.

A duplicate receipt for the money paid into Court shall be delivered with the defence.

Receipt.

A duplicate receipt for the money paid into Court shall be delivered with the notice.

Plaintiff may accept in satisfaction.

5. When payment into Court is made before delivery of a defence, the plaintiff may, within eight days after notice of the payment, and when the payment is first signified in a defence the plaintiff may at any time before joining issue, accept in satisfaction of the cause of action in respect of which the payment has been made the sum so paid in, in which case he shall give notice of such acceptance to the defendant, and shall be at liberty, in case the whole action is thereby satisfied, to tax his costs, if he is entitled to any, after the expiration of four days from the service of such notice, unless the Court or a Justice otherwise orders, and in case of non-payment of the costs within four days after taxation he may sign judgment for his costs so taxed. (a)

As to time for joining issue, see Order XXII., r. 3.

As to computation of time limited by this rule, see Order LIII.

(a) Held by the High Court that where, in an action for compensation for land resumed by the Commonwealth, issue has been joined upon a plea of payment into Court without denial of liability, the only issue is whether the amount paid in is sufficient, and the plaintiff is entitled to that sum in any event: Spencer v. Commonwealth, (5 C.L.R. 418 [1906]).

Payment out of Court.

6. When money is paid into Court before delivery of a defence, or when the liability of a defendant in respect of a claim or cause of action in respect of which money is paid into Court is not denied in the defence, the money paid into Court shall be paid out to the plaintiff at his request, or to his solicitor on his written order, unless the Court or a Justice otherwise orders.

When defence denies liability.

7. When the liability of the defendant in respect of the cause of action in satisfaction of which the payment into Court has been made is denied in the defence, the following Rules shall apply:-

(a) The plaintiff may accept, in satisfaction of the cause of action in respect of which the payment into Court has been made, the sum so paid in, in which case all further proceedings in respect of that cause of action, except as to costs, shall be stayed; or he may join issue, in which case the money shall remain in Court subject to the provisions hereinafter contained. (a)

(b) If the plaintiff accepts the money so paid in, he shall give notice of such acceptance to the defendant; and thereupon the money shall be paid out to him at his request or to his solicitor on his written order, unless the Court or a Justice otherwise orders.

(c) If the plaintiff does not accept, in satisfaction of the cause of action in respect of which the payment into Court has been made, the sum paid in, but proceeds with the action in respect of that cause of action, or any part thereof, the money shall remain in Court, and shall, on the determination of the action, be subject to the order of the Court or a Justice, and shall not be paid out of Court except in pursuance of such an order. If the plaintiff proceeds with the action in respect of that cause of action, or any part thereof, and recovers less than the amount paid into Court, the amount paid in shall be ordered to be applied, as far as is necessary, in satisfaction of the plaintiff's claim; and the balance shall, unless otherwise ordered, be repaid to the defendant. If the defendant succeeds in respect of that cause of action, the whole amount shall be ordered to be repaid to him.

As to payment out of Court of money paid in as security for costs, see Order XXVIII., r. 15.

On summons, see Order XLVI., r. 3.

As to time for delivery of joinder of issue, see Order XXII., r. 3.

8. When money is paid into Court in two or more actions which are consolidated, the money paid in and the costs in all the actions shall, unless otherwise directed by the order of consolidation, be dealt with in the same manner as in the test action.

As to consolidation of actions, see Order XLV.

Pleadings subsequent to reply.

3. Subject to the last preceding Rule, every pleading subsequent to reply shall be delivered within four days after the delivery of the previous pleading, unless the time is extended by the Court or a Justice.

No delivery or amendment of pleadings is allowed in vacation; see Order LIII., r. 3.

Vacation is not to be reckoned in time for delivery of pleadings; see Order LIII., r. 4.

The time limited for giving security for costs also is not reckoned; see Order LIII., r. 5.

As to enlarging or abridging time, see Order LIII., r. 6.

As to joinder of issue, see Order XVII., r. 17.

As to close of pleadings on default, see Order XXVI., r. 9.

Before defence.

1. Any ground of defence which has arisen after action brought, but before the defendant has delivered his defence, and before the time limited for his doing so has expired, may be set up by the defendant in his defence, either alone or together with other grounds of defence. And if, after a defence has been delivered, any ground of reply arises to any set-off or cross-claim alleged therein by the defendant, it may be set up by the plaintiff in his reply, either alone or together with any other ground of reply.

As to time limited for delivery of defence, see Order XX., rr. 6, 7.

ORDER XXIV.

Demurrer. (a)

(a) Held by the High Court that the party supporting a demurrer has the right to begin, except where there are cross-demurrers, in which case the plaintiff begins. Held also that it is not necessary to read pleadings, but only to state shortly their purport, and the points raised therein. It was also held that on demurrers two counsel will be heard: Bond v. Commonwealth, (1 C.L.R. 13 [1903]).

Demurrer.

1. Any party may demur to any pleading of the opposite party, or to any part of a pleading which sets up a distinct cause of action, or to any distinct and severable claim for damages, or to any claim for damages exceeding an amount named by the demurring party, or to any pleading or part of a pleading of the opposite party which sets up a distinct ground of defence, set-off, cross-claim, or reply, as the case may be, on the ground that the facts alleged do not show any cause of action, claim for damages, or ground of defence, set-off, cross-claim, or reply, as the case may be, to which effect can be given by the Court as against the party demurring.

The provisions of this order are subject to such variations or modifications as the Court or a Justice may think fit to make on a summons for directions under Order XV.

No technical objection can be made to a pleading on the ground of any alleged want of form; see Order XVII., r. 28; see also H.C.P. Act, Sec. 24.

Demurrer to state whether the whole or part.
Ground.
Frivolous.
Demurrer set aside with costs.

2. A demurrer must state specifically whether it is to the whole or to a part, and if so to what part, of the claim or pleading of the opposite party. It must state some ground in law for the demurrer, but the party demurring shall not on the argument of the demurrer be limited to the ground so stated. If no ground or only a frivolous ground of demurrer is stated, the Court or a Justice may set the demurrer aside with costs.

Delivery.

3. A demurrer shall be delivered in the same manner and within the same time as any other pleading.

As to time and manner in which pleadings are to be delivered, see Order XVII., r. 7, and Order LIII., rr. 4, 7.

Demurrer and defence in one pleading.

4. When a party entitled to deliver desires both to demur and plead to the last pleading of the opposite party, or to demur to part of the last pleading of the opposite party and to plead to other part thereof, he shall combine the demurrer and other pleading.

As to right of party to plead and demur together without leave, see r. 5.

Leave to plead and demur together not necessary.

5. Any party may plead and demur to the same matter without leave. When a party demurring pleads as well as demurs, it shall be in the discretion of the Court or a Justice to direct whether the issues of law or fact shall be first disposed of.

Demurrer to claim founded on document.

6. When the claim or defence of any party depends, or may depend, upon the construction of a written document, and the party in his pleading refers to the document but does not set it out at length, the opposite party may, in his demurrer, set out the document at length or so much thereof as is material, and demur to the claim or defence founded upon it, in the same manner as if it had been pleaded at length by the other party.

If he does not set out the document truly or sufficiently, the Court or a Justice may order the demurrer to be struck out or amended.

As to pleading the effect of documents in the first instance without setting out the documents at length, see Order XVII., r. 20.

Demurrer not entered for argument to be held sufficient.

7. When a demurrer, either to the whole or part of a pleading, is delivered, either party may set down the demurrer for argument before the Court immediately, and the party setting down the demurrer shall on the same day give notice thereof to the other party. If the demurrer is not set down and notice given within ten days after delivery, and if the party whose pleading or claim is demurred to does not within that time amend, the demurrer shall be held sufficient for the same purposes and with the same result as to costs as if it had been allowed on argument, and the same judgment may be entered thereon.

As to effect of decision on demurrer, see rr. 10, 11, infra.

As to indorsement on demurrer of notice requiring demurrer to be set down for argument, see Order XVII., r. 32.

As to amendment generally, see H.C.P. Act, ss. 23, 24, and Order XXVII.

Costs when demurrer allowed.

9. When a demurrer to the whole or part of any pleading or claim is allowed upon argument, the party whose pleading or claim is demurred to shall pay to the demurring party the costs of the demurrer, and when a demurrer is overruled the demurring party shall pay to the opposite party the costs occasioned by the demurrer, unless in either case the Court otherwise orders.

As to costs generally, see Order LIV.

Effect of decision on demurrer going to whole action.

10. Subject to the power of amendment, when a demurrer to the whole of any pleading, so far as it relates to a separate cause of action, is allowed or overruled, the Court shall give such judgment as to that cause of action as upon the pleadings the successful party appears to be entitled to, and, if the judgment is for the defendant with respect to the whole action, the plaintiff shall pay to the defendant the costs of the action, unless the Court otherwise orders.

As to the power of the Court or a Justice to amend generally, see H.C.P. Act, ss. 23, 24, and Order XXVII.

As to costs generally, see Order LIV.

Where demurrer allowed to part of a pleading that part is to be deemed to be struck out.

11. When a demurrer to any pleading or claim or part of a pleading or claim is allowed in any case not falling within the last preceding Rule, then, subject to the power of amendment, the matter demurred to shall as between the parties to the demurrer be deemed to be struck out of the pleadings, and the rights of the parties shall be the same as if it had not pleaded.

Demurrer overruled with leave to plead.

12. When a demurrer is overruled, the Court may make such order, and upon such terms as the Court thinks fit, for allowing the demurring party to raise by further pleading any case which he desires to set up in opposition to the matter demurred to.

Form of entry for argument.

13. A demurrer shall be set down for argument by filing a copy of the pleadings so far as they relate to the matters of law raised by the demurrer, and delivering to the Registrar a memorandum of entry for argument.

As to the right of either party to set demurrer down for argument immediately after service of same, see r. 7, supra.

As to hearing of demurrer by a single Justice or Full Court, see r. 14, infra.

As to indorsement on demurrer of notice requiring demurrer to be set down for argument, see Order XVII., r. 32.

When demurrer required to be heard before Full Court.

14. When the party entering a demurrer for argument enters it to be heard before a single Justice, and any other party desires it to be heard before a Full Court in the first instance, he may, within four days after receiving notice that the demurrer has been so entered, deliver to the Registrar and to the opposite party a memorandum to that effect, and the demurrer shall thereupon be deemed to have been entered to be heard before a Full Court in the first instance.

If the action is pending in a District Registry, the pleadings shall be forthwith transmitted to the Principal Registry, unless a sitting of a Full Court is appointed to be held within sixty days at the place where the District Registry is situated. After the decision of the Full Court the pleadings shall be returned to the District Registry with a certificate of the judgment or order of the Full Court.

As to computation of time limited by this rule, see Order LIII.

Pleadings for Justices.

15. Four days at least before the day for which a demurrer is set down for argument, (a), the party setting it down shall leave at the chambers of the Justice, or at the chambers of each of the Justices who are to sit on the hearing of the argument, a copy of the pleadings so far as they relate to the matters of law raised by the demurrer.

As to computation of time limited by this rule, see Order LIII.

(a) The pleadings must be left at the Chambers of the Judge, four days at least before the demurrer is set down for argument.

On demurrers, two counsel will be heard : Bond v. Commonwealth, (1 C.L.R. 13 [1903]).

3. The Court or a Justice may, in like manner, and with the like discretion as to terms, upon the application of a defendant, order the whole or any part of his defence to be withdrawn or struck out ; but a defendant may not withdraw his defence, or any part thereof, without such leave.

2. When a writ of summons or any indorsement thereon is amended, the amendment shall be made in such manner as to distinguish the amendments from the original matter, and the writ shall be resealed. Failure to amend after order.

8. If a party who has obtained an order for leave to amend any proceeding does not amend accordingly within the time limited for that purpose by the order, or if no time is thereby limited then within fourteen days from the date of the order, the leave to amend shall, on the expiration of the time so limited, or of such fourteen days (as the case may be), cease to have effect, unless the time is extended by the Court or a Justice.

In any other case the party by whom the payment into Court was made shall be entitled to have the sum paid out to him.

Saving.

17. Nothing in the eight last preceding Rules shall be construed to affect the power of the Court or a Justice to require security for costs to be given by any party to any cause or matter in any case in which it is just that such security should be given.

As to giving security by plaintiff ordinarily resident beyond the Commonwealth, see r. 9, supra.

ORDER XXIX.

Discovery (a) and Inspection.

(a) Held by the High Court that in a civil action for penalties, in the absence of statutory provision to the contrary, the plaintiff is not entitled to an order for discovery of documents against the defendant. This rule applies equally to actions by the Crown and actions by a common informer: Rex v. The Associated Northern Collieries, (11 C.L.R. 738 [1910]).

Discovery by interrogatories.

1. In any cause the plaintiff or defendant may at any time before the plaintiff is in a position to give notice of trial, or at any later time by leave of the Court or a Justice, deliver interrogatories in writing for the examination of the opposite parties or any of them; and the interrogatories when delivered shall have a note at the foot thereof, stating which of the interrogatories each of the parties is required to answer: Provided that no party shall deliver more than one set of interrogatories to the same party without a special order for that purpose.

Interrogatories which do not relate to any matters in question in the cause shall be deemed irrelevant, (a) notwithstanding that they might be admissable on the oral cross-examination of a witness.

As to power of High Court or Justice to order the examination of any person on interrogatories, see H.C.P. Act, s. 19.

As to interrogatories on summons for directions, see Order XV., r. 2.

Interrogatories may be administered to an accused person touching his contempt: see Order XLIX., r. 6.

(a) Held by the High Court that any facts relevant to the matter in issue may be the subject of interrogatories: Potter's Sulphide Ore Treatment, Ltd. v. Sulphide Corporation, Ltd., (13 C.L.R. 101 [1901]).

Costs of interrogatories.

2. In adjudging the costs of the cause, inquiry shall, at the instance of any party, be made into the propriety of exhibiting any interrogatories, and if it is the opinion of the Court or a Justice upon the report of the taxing officer, or without such report, and either with or without an application for inquiry, that the interrogatories have been exhibited unreasonably, vexatiously, or at improper length, the costs occasioned by the interrogatories and the answers thereto shall be paid in any event by the party in fault.

Corporations.

3. If any party to a cause is a corporation or a joint stock company, or any body of persons empowered by law to sue or be sued, whether in its own name or in the name of any officer or other person, any opposite party may apply for an order allowing him to deliver interrogatories to be answered by some member or officer of the corporation, company, or body, on their behalf, and an order may be made accordingly.

As to discovery by corporations, see r. 9 infra.

Answer by affidavit.

4. Interrogatories shall be answered by affidavit to be filed within twenty-eight days after delivery of the interrogatories or within such other time as the Court or a Justice allows.

A copy of the affidavit shall be delivered to the interrogating party on the same day on which it is filed.

As to using interrogatories at trial, see r. 22 infra.

As to computation of time limited by this rule, see Order LIII.

Objections to interrogatories by answer.

5. An objection to answering any interrogatory, whether on the ground that it is scandalous or irrelevant, or is not delivered bona fide for the purpose of the cause, or that the matters inquired into are not sufficiently material at that stage of the cause, or on any other ground, may be taken in the affidavit.

No exception to be taken.

6. No exceptions shall be taken to any affidavit in answer, but the sufficiency or otherwise of any such affidavit objected to as insufficient shall be determined by the Court or a Justice on motion or summons.

As to order to answer or further answer, see r. 7 infra.

Order to answer or answer further.

7. If any party interrogated omits to answer, or makes an insufficient answer to any interrogatory, the party interrogating may apply to the Court or a Justice for an order requiring him to answer, or to make further answer, as the case may be. An order may thereupon be made requiring him to answer, or make further answer, either by affidavit or upon oral examination, as the Court or Justice directs.

As to what interrogatories are to be answered and in what manner, see r. 1 supra
As to using answer at trial, see r. 22 infra.

Any party to a cause, may without any affidavit, apply to the Court or a Justice for an order directing any other party to the cause to make discovery (a) on oath of the documents which are or have been in his possession or power, relating to any matters in question in the cause. On the hearing of the application the Court or Justice may make such order, either generally or limited to certain classes of documents, as in their discretion seems fit, or may adjourn the application :

Provided that discovery shall not be ordered, if and so far as the Court or Justice is of opinion that it is not necessary, either for disposing fairly of the cause or for saving costs.

As to affidavit of documents and filing and delivery, see r. 10 infra.
As to effect of failure to comply with an order for discovery, see r. 19 infra.
(a) An application for discovery of documents made after issue joined must, in general, be made upon notice to the other party : Ward v. C. W. McFarlane & Co., (22 C.L.R. 488 [1917]).
See also note to Order XXIX. Rex v. Associated Northern Collieries, (11 C.L.R. 738 [1910]).

If the party from whom discovery is sought is a corporation or a joint stock company, or any body of persons empowered by law to sue or be sued, whether in its own name, or in the name of any officer or other person, the application may be that the party, corporation, company, or body, shall make the discovery by the affidavit of some member or officer of the corporation, company, or body and an order may be made accordingly.

As to interrogatories to a corporation, see r. 3 supra.
As to affidavit of documents under this rule, see r. 10 infra.

Affidavit of documents.

10. The party or person required to make discovery under either of the two last preceding Rules shall make or procure to be made an affidavit giving the required discovery as to all such documents as are or have been in the possession or power of the party relating to the matters in question in the cause, in which affidavit shall be specified which, if any, of the documents therein mentioned the party objects to produce.

The affidavit shall be filed, and a copy thereof shall be delivered to the opposite party on the same day on which it is filed.

11. The Court or a Justice may, at any time during the pendency of any cause, order the production by any party thereto, upon his oath, or in the case of such parties as are mentioned in Rule 9 of this Order, upon the oath of some member or officer, of such of the documents in the possession or power of the party relating to any matter in question in such cause, as the Court or Justice thinks fit; and the Court or Justice may deal with such documents, when produced, in such manner as is just.

Rule 9 refers to a Corporation, a Joint Stock Company, or any body of persons empowered to sue or be sued.

As to production of documents for inspection, see rr. 12 et seq, infra.

Inspection of documents referred to in pleadings or affidavits.

12. Any party to a cause may, at any time, by notice in writing, require any other party in whose pleadings, particulars, or affidavits, reference is made to any document, to produce the document for the inspection of the party giving the notice, or of his solicitor, and to permit them to take copies thereof.

Any party not complying with such notice shall not afterwards be at liberty to put any such document in evidence on his behalf in the cause, unless he, being a defendant in the cause, satisfies the Court or Justice that the document relates only to his own title, or unless he satisfies the Court or Justice that he had some other sufficient ground for not complying with the notice.

As to order for inspection of documents, see r. 14 infra.

As to notice to admit facts or documents, see Order XXX., r. 2.

Time and place for inspection Bank and trade books

13. A party to whom notice to produce documents is given shall, within two days from the receipt of the notice, if all the documents therein referred to have been set forth by him in the affidavit made under Rule 10 of this Order, or within four days from the receipt of such notice, if any of the documents referred to in the notice have not been set forth by him in any such affidavit, deliver to the party giving the notice to produce a notice stating a time within seven days from the delivery thereof at which the documents, or such of them as he does not object to produce, may be inspected at the office of his solicitor, or in the case of bankers' books or other books of account or books in constant use for the purposes of any trade or business, at their usual place of custody, and stating which, if any, of the documents he objects to produce, and on what ground.

As to order for inspection see r. 14 infra.

As to computation of times limited by this rule, see Order LIII.

Order for inspection.

14. If a party served with notice under the last preceding Rule omits to give such notice of a time for inspection, or objects to give inspection, or offers inspection elsewhere than at the office of his solicitor, the Court or Justice may, on the application of the party desiring it, make an order for inspection in such place and in such manner as they think fit.

As to order of verified entries in lieu of inspection, see r. 16 infra.

As to determination of an issue or question before the decision upon the right to discovery or inspection, see r. 18 infra.

Special order.

15. The Court or a Justice may, at any time, on the application of any party to a cause, and whether an affidavit of documents has or has not already been ordered or made, make an order requiring any other party to the cause to state upon affidavit whether any specific document to be specified in the application is or has at any time been in his possession or power; and, if it has been, but is not then, in his possession, when he parted with it, and what has become of it.

Such application shall be made on an affidavit stating that, in the belief of the deponent, the party against whom the application is made has, or has at some time had, in his possession or power the document specified in the application, and that it relates to matters in question in the cause.

As to affidavits of documents, see r. 10 supra.

Verified copies.

16. When inspection of any business books is applied for, the Court or a Justice may, if they think fit, instead of ordering inspection of the original books, order a copy of any entries therein to be furnished and verified by the affidavit of some person who has examined the copy with the original enties. Every such affidavit shall state whether or not there are in the original book any and what erasures, interlineations, or alterations; Provided that, notwithstanding that such a copy has been supplied, the Court or a Justice may order inspection of the book from which the copy was made.

Privilege.

17. When, on an application for an order for inspection, objection is made to the production of any documents, either on the ground of privilege or on any other ground, the Court or a Justice may inspect the document for the purpose of deciding as to the validity of the objection.

As to privilege, see notes to rr. 11, 14 supra.

Premature discovery.

18. If a party from whom discovery of any kind or inspection is sought objects to the discovery or inspection, or any part thereof, the Court or a Justice may, if satisfied that the right to the discovery or inspection sought depends on the determination of any issue or question in dispute in the cause, or that for any reason it is desirable that any issue or question in dispute in the cause should be determined before deciding upon the right to the discovery or inspection, order that the issue or question shall be first determined, and may reserve the question as to the discovery or inspection.

As to order for inspection, see r. 14 supra.

Non-compliance with order for discovery.

19. If any party fails to comply with an order to answer interrogatories, or for discovery or inspection of documents, he shall be liable to attachment. He shall also, if a plaintiff, be liable to have his action dismissed for want of prosecution, and, if a defendant, to have his defence, if any, struck out, and to be placed in the same position as if he had not defended, and the party interrogating or seeking discovery may apply to the Court or a Justice for an order to that effect, and an order may be made accordingly.

Compare H.C.P. Act, s. 17.
As to order to answer interrogatories, see r. 7.
As to attachment generally, see order XLI.

Service on solicitor of order for discovery.

As to neglect by solicitor to give notice of trial to his client, see r. 21 infra.

As to attachment generally, see Order XLI.

Using answers to interrogatories at trial.

22. Any party may, at the trial of a cause, or any issue in a cause, use in evidence any answer, or any part of an answer, of the opposite party to any interrogatory without putting in the whole of the answer, or the answers to other interrogatories; Provided that in any case the Justice may look at the whole of the answers, and if he is of opinion that any other answer or part of an answer is so connected with the answer put in that the last-mentioned answer ought not to be used without the other, he may direct such other answer or part of an answer to be put in by the party tendering the answer.

Discovery against Marshal.

23. In an action by or against the Marshal in respect of any matters connected with the execution of his office, the Court or a Justice may, on the application of either party, order that the affidavit to be made in answer either to interrogatories or to an order for discovery shall be made by the officer actually concerned.

Provided that any admission made in pursuance of such notice shall be deemed to be made only for the purposes of the particular cause or issue, and shall not be used as an admission against the party on any other occasion, or in favour of any person other than the party giving the notice: Provided also, that the Court or a Justice may at any time allow any party to amend or withdraw any admission so made on such terms as are just.

As to notice to produce documents, see Order XXIX., r. 12.

Upon the argument of the case the Court and the parties shall be at liberty to refer to the whole contents of any documents referred to therein, and the Court shall be at liberty to draw from the facts and documents stated in the case any inference, whether of fact or law, which might have been drawn therefrom if they had been proved at a trial.

Or on demurrer; see Order XXIV.

Special case by order before trial.

2. If in any cause it is made to appear to the Court or a Justice that there is any question of law which it would be convenient to have decided before any evidence is given or any question or issue of fact is tried the Court or Justice may make an order accordingly and may direct the question of law to be raised for the opinion of the Court, either by special case or in such other manner as the Court or Justice deems expedient; and all such further proceedings as the decision of the question of law renders unnecessary may thereupon be stayed.

Special case to be filed.

3. Every special case shall be signed by the several parties or their solicitors, and shall be filed by the plaintiff.

The fee payable on filing a special case is £1.

Leave to set down where married woman, infant, or person of unsound mind is a party.

Agreement as to payment of money and costs.

5. The parties to a special case may sign a memorandum to the effect that, on the judgment of the Court being given in the affirmative or negative of any question of law raised by the case, a sum of money, fixed by the parties, or to be ascertained by the Court, or in such manner as the Court directs, shall be paid by one of the parties to the other of them, either with or without the costs of the cause; and the judgment of the Court may be entered for the sum so agreed or ascertained, with or without costs, and execution may issue upon such judgment forthwith, unless otherwise agreed, or unless stayed on appeal.

Either party may enter a special case for argument by delivering to the proper officer a memorandum of entry, and, if any married woman, not being a party in respect only of such matters as in Rule 4 of this Order are specified, or if an infant, or any such person of unsound mind as mentioned in that Rule, is a party to the cause, producing a copy of the order giving leave to enter the special case for argument.

Special case may be heard before Full Court in the first instance.

7. When the party entering a special case for argument enters it to be heard before a single Justice, and any other party desires it to be heard before a Full Court in the first instance, he may, within four days after receiving notice that the case has been so entered, deliver to the Registrar and to the opposite party a memorandum to that effect, and the special case shall thereupon be deemed to have been entered to be heard before a Full Court in the first instance.

If the action is pending in a District Registry, the special case shall be forthwith transmitted to the Principal Registry, unless a sitting of the Full Court is appointed to be held within sixty days at the place where the District Registry is situated. Such questions may be entered for trial and tried in the same manner as issues joined upon pleadings in an action, and the proceedings thereon shall be subject to the same control by the Court or a Justice as when issue is joined upon pleadings.

Record of proceedings

12. The proceedings upon any such issue as aforesaid may be recorded at the instance of either party, and the judgment, whether actually recorded or not, shall have the same effect as any other judgment in a contested action.

Affidavits by illiterate or blind persons.

9. When an affidavit is sworn by any person who appears to the officer before whom it is taken to be illiterate or blind, the officer shall certify in the jurat that the affidavit was read in his presence to the deponent, that the deponent seemed perfectly to understand it, and that the deponent made his signature or mark in the presence of the officer. No such affidavit shall be used in evidence in the absence of this certificate, unless the Court or a Justice is otherwise satisfied that the affidavit was read over to and appeared to be perfectly understood by the deponent.

Affirmation.

10. When a deponent does not take an oath, the form of jurat shall be varied, and the necessary alterations made so as to conform with the solemn affirmation or other declaration of the deponent.

As to form of affirmation, see H.C.P. Act, s. 18.

And the Court or Justice may, if satisfied of the expediency thereof, give such leave, upon such terms, if any, as is just, and may give any directions which are desirable as to postponing the trial of the other questions or issues of fact.

As to time limitation of motion for judgment, see Order XXXVI., r. 5.

Length of notice of motion.

Default in attending appointment with documents.

12. If any party fails to attend the Registrar's appointment for settling the draft of a judgment or order, or fails to produce his counsel's briefs and such other documents as the Registrar may require to enable him to settle such draft, or to pass such judgment or order, the Registrar may proceed to settle the draft, or to pass the judgment or order, in his absence, and the Registrar shall be at liberty to dispense with the production of counsel's briefs, or with the production of such documents or papers as aforesaid, and to act upon such evidence as he may think fit of the actual appearance by counsel of the party failing to attend, or may require the matter to be mentioned to the Court or a Justice.

As to default of appearance generally; see Order XI.

Adjournment of appointments.

13. The Registrar may adjourn any appointment for settling the draft of a judgment or order, or for passing a judgment or order, to such time as he may think fit, and the parties who attended the appointment shall be bound to attend such appointment without further notice.

Settling and passing judgment or order without any appointment.

14. Notwithstanding the preceding Rules of this Order, the Registrar may, in any case in which he may think it expedient so to do, settle and pass any judgment or order, without making any appointment for either purpose and without notice to any party.

15. Every judgment or order when settled and passed shall be engrossed by the party having the carriage of the judgment or order.

16. (1) Every judgment and order shall be kept in the Registry as a record.

(2) A duplicate of every judgment or order shall, one clear day after the same has been entered, and in urgent cases sooner if so directed by the Registrar, be signed and sealed by the Registrar, without fee, and delivered to the party having the carriage of the judgment or order; and whenever any rule or order or the practice of the Court requires the production of a judgment or order, it shall be sufficient to produce the duplicate.

(3) A further duplicate may at any time, with the sanction of the Registrar and on payment of the prescribed fee, be issued on production of the duplicate first issued, or on the Registrar being satisfied of the loss of that duplicate, and that the person applying is properly entitled to it.

(4) A judgment or order shall not be amended except on production of the duplicate or duplicates, or the duplicate last issued, as the case may be, which shall, after the original order has been amended, be also amended in accordance therewith, under the direction of the Registrar, and the amendment in the duplicate shall be sealed under the like direction.

Certificate for special allowance.

17. The Registrar shall, if requested to do so by any party at the time of any attendance before him for the purpose of settling the draft of a judgment or order or of passing a judgment or order certify, for the information of the taxing officer, whether in his opinion any special allowance ought to be made on taxation of costs in respect of such attendance, or in respect of the preparation of the draft by any party whom he has requested to prepare the same, on the ground that the judgment or order is of a special nature, or of unusual length or difficulty.

As to review of taxation of costs; see Order LIV., r. 15.

When orders need not be drawn up.

18. When an order is made which does not embody any special terms or include any special directions, but merely gives leave to some officer of the Court other than a solicitor to do some act, or merely enlarges the time for taking some proceeding or for doing some act, or merely gives leave—

(a) To issue a writ, not being a writ of attachment; or

(b) To amend any writ or other proceeding; or

(c) To enter a judgment or order nunc pro tunc; or

(d) To file any document or to take a document off the file;

or merely directs a clerical mistake or an error appearing in a judgment or order to be corrected, it shall not be necessary to draw up such order unless the Court or Justice so directs; but the production of a note or memorandum of such order, signed or initialled by the Justice or Registrar (which may be made upon any document filed in the cause or matter) shall be sufficient authority for such enlargement of time, issue, amendment, entry, filing or other act. A direction that the costs of any such order shall be costs in any cause or matter shall be deemed a special direction within the meaning of this Rule.

As to time; see Order LIII.
As to costs; see Order LIV.

In the case of non-performance of an undertaking to pay money to any person, the Court or a Justice may make an order for payment of the money, which may be enforced in the same manner as a judgment for the recovery of money.

Actions by and against firms within the Commonwealth.

1. Any two or more persons claiming or being liable as partners and carrying on business within the Commonwealth may sue or be sued in the name of the respective firms, if any, of which they were partners at the time of the accuring of the cause of action.

As to application of this order to actions between co-partners; see r. 11 infra.

Against a person trading as a firm; see r. 12 infra.

As to disclosure and order for disclosure of partners' names and addresses; see rr. 2, 4 infra.

As to service; see r. 5 infra.

As to appearance; see rr. 7, 8 infra.

2. When partners sue in the name of their firm, the plaintiffs or their solicitor shall, on demand in writing by or on behalf of any defendant, forthwith declare in writing the names and places of residence of all the persons constituting the firm in whose name the action is brought; and if the plaintiffs or their solicitors fail to comply with the demand, all proceedings in the action may be stayed upon such terms as the Court or a Justice directs.

Action to continue in name of firm

3. When the names of the partners are declared, the action shall proceed in the same manner, and the same consequences in all respects shall follow, as if they had been named as the plaintiffs in the originating proceeding. But all the proceedings shall, nevertheless, continue in the name of the firm.

Order for disclosure

4. In any case in which partners sue or are sued in the name of their firm under Rule 1 of this Order, any party to the cause may apply to a Justice for an order directing that a statement of the names and addresses of the persons who were at the time of the accruing of the cause of action, partners in the firm, shall be furnished in such manner, and verified on oath or otherwise, as the Justice directs.

Service.

5. When persons are sued as partners in the name of their firm under Rule 1 of this Order, the originating proceeding shall be served either upon some one or more of the partners, or at the principal place, within the Commonwealth, of the business of the partnership upon some person having at the time of service the control or management of the partnership business there; and, subject to these Rules, such service shall be deemed good service upon the firm whether any of the members thereof are beyond the Commonwealth or not. Provided that in the case of a partnership which has been dissolved to the knowledge of the plaintiff before the commencement of the action, the originating proceeding shall be served upon every person within the Commonwealth sought to be made liable.

As to delivery to person served of notice of the character in which he is served; see r. 5 infra.

As to appearance; see rr. 8, 9.

As to service of originating proceedings generally; see Order VIII.

Notice in what capacity served.

6. When persons are sued as partners, and the originating proceeding is served as directed by the last preceding Rule, there shall be delivered with it to every person upon whom it is served a notice in writing stating whether he is served as a partner or as a person having the control or management of the partnership business, or in both characters. In the absence of such notice, the person served shall be deemed to be served as a partner.

Appearance of partners.

7. When persons are sued as partners in the name of their firm, they shall appear individually in their own names; but all subsequent proceedings shall, nevertheless, continue in the name of the firm.

As to no appearance except by partners; see r. 8 infra.

As to appearance generally; see Order X.

No appearance except by partners.

8. When a writ is served under Rule 5 of this Order upon a person having the control or management of the partnership business, an appearance by him shall not be necessary unless he is a member of the firm sued.

Appearance under protest, of person served as partner.

9. Any person served as a partner under Rule 5 of this Order may enter a conditional appearance, denying that he is a partner, but such appearance shall not preclude the plaintiff from duly serving the firm otherwise than by service upon him, and obtaining judgment against the firm in default of appearance if no partner enters an appearance in the ordinary form.

Execution of judgment against a firm.

10. When a judgment or order is given or made against a firm, execution may issue :—

(a) Against any property of the partnership within the Commonwealth ;

(b) Against any person who has appeared in the action in his own name, or who has admitted on the pleadings that he is, or who has been adjudged to be, a partner ;

(c) Against any person who has been individually served, as a partner, with the writ of summons, and has failed to appear.

If the party who has obtained the judgment or order claims to be entitled to issue execution against any other person as being a member of the firm, he may apply to the Court or a Justice for leave so to do ; and the Court or Justice may give such leave if the liability of the other person is not disputed, or, if such liability is disputed, may order that the liability of that person be tried in any manner in which any question or issue of fact in an action may be tried.

But, except as against any property of the partnership, a judgment against a firm shall not render liable, or release, or otherwise affect, any member thereof who was beyond the Commonwealth when the cause was commenced, and who has not appeared in the cause, unless he has been served within the Commonwealth with the originating proceeding, or the plaintiff has obtained liberty to proceed in the action against him under Order IX.

Order IX. deals with service out of the jurisdiction in specified cases, and for the subsequent proceedings with leave of the Court.

As to trial of issues of fact; see H.C.P. Act, ss. 12, 13 ; Order XXXIII., r. 2 et seq.

(a) Upon a ship, or upon freight, cargo, or other property if the cargo or other property is on board the ship, by nailing or affixing the original writ or warrant for a short time on the mainmast or on the single mast of the ship, or on some other conspicuous part of the vessel, and on taking off the process leaving a true copy of it nailed or affixed in its place;

Caveat against warrant to arrest.

21. A party desiring to prevent the arrest of any property, may cause a caveat against the issue of a warrant for the arrest thereof to be entered in the Registry.

Caveat Warrant Book.

22. For the purpose in the last preceding Rule mentioned, the party shall cause to be filed in the Registry a notice, signed by himself or his solicitor, undertaking to enter an appearance in any action that may be commenced against the property, and to give security in such action in a sum not exceeding an amount to be stated in the notice, or to pay such sum into Court; and a caveat against the issue of a warrant for the arrest of the property shall thereupon be entered in a book to be kept in the Registry, called the Caveat Warrant Book.

Writ to be served on party entering caveat.

23. A plaintiff commencing an action against any property in respect of which a caveat has been entered in the Caveat Warrant Book, shall forthwith serve a copy of the writ upon the party on whose behalf the caveat has been entered, or upon his solicitor.

Security to be given within three days.

24. The party on whose behalf the caveat has been entered shall, if the sum in respect of which the action is commenced does not exceed the amount for which he has undertaken, give security in such sum within three days from the service of the writ.

If security not given, action may proceed as on default.

25. After the expiration of twelve days from the filing of the notice in Rule 22 of this Order mentioned, if the party on whose behalf the caveat has been entered has not, within three days from the service of the writ, given security as required by the last preceding Rule, the plaintiff may proceed with the action as upon default of appearance.

Judgment may be enforced by attachment and warrant.

26. If, when the action comes before the Court, the Court is satisfied that the claim is well founded, it may pronounce for the amount which appears to be due, and may enforce payment thereof by attachment against the party on whose behalf the caveat has been entered, as well as by the arrest of the property, if it then is, or thereafter comes, within the jurisdiction of the Court.

Release

27. Property arrested by warrant in Admiralty actions shall not be released except under the authority of an instrument issued from the Registry, to be called a release.

Caveat against release

28. A party desiring to prevent the release of any property under arrest, shall file in the Registry a notice, and thereupon a caveat against the release of the property shall be entered in a book, to be kept in the Registry, called the Caveat Release Book.

29. Except as hereinafter provided, a party may obtain the release of any property by paying into Court the sum in respect of which the action has been commenced, or giving security for the like sum.

Release of cargo arrested for freight only

30. Cargo, arrested for freight only, may be released by filing an affidavit as to the value of the freight, and by paying the amount of the freight into Court, or upon an order of the Court or a Justice upon proof that the freight has already been paid.

In salvage actions

31. In an action for salvage, the value of the property under arrest shall be agreed, or an affidavit of value filed, before the property is released, unless the Court or a Justice otherwise orders.

On giving security

32. A party who has given security in the sum in respect of which the action has been commenced, or paid such sum into Court, and if the action is one of salvage, has also filed an affidavit as to the value of the property arrested, shall be entitled to a release for the same, unless a caveat against the release is outstanding in the Caveat Release Book.

On consent or discontinuance or dismissal of action

33. A release may also be issued by the Registrar, unless there is a caveat outstanding in the Caveat Release Book, on a consent in writing being filed, signed by the party at whose instance the property has been arrested, or on discontinuance or dismissal of the action in which the property has been arrested.

To be left with Marshal

34. The release, when obtained, shall be left with the Marshal by the party taking it out, who shall also at the same time pay all costs, charges, and expenses, attending the care and custody of the property while under arrest; and the property shall thereupon be released.

Registrar may require Justice's order.

35. The Registrar may refuse to issue a release without the order of a Justice.

Liability for delaying release

36. A party delaying the release of any property by the entry of a caveat shall be liable to be condemned in the costs and damages occasioned thereby, unless he shows to the satisfaction of the Court or a Justice good and sufficient reason for having done so.

Arrest notwithstanding caveat.

37. Nothing in these Rules shall prevent a solicitor from taking out a warrant for the arrest of any property, notwithstanding the entry of a caveat in the Caveat Warrant Book; but the party at whose instance any property in respect of which the caveat was entered has been arrested shall be liable to have the warrant discharged and to be condemned in costs and damages, unless he shows to the satisfaction of the Court or Justice good and sufficient reason for having so done.

Caveat Payment Book.

38. A book shall be kept in the Registry, called the Caveat Payment Book, in which caveats shall be entered against the payment of money out of Court in Admiralty actions.

Liability for delaying payment.

40. The party at whose instance a caveat payment is entered, shall be liable to be condemned in the costs and damages occasioned thereby, unless he shows to the satisfaction of the Court or Justice good and sufficient reason for entering the caveat.

Address of caveator.

41. If the person entering a caveat is not a party to the action, the notice shall state his name and address, and an address within one mile of the Registry, at which it shall be sufficient to leave all documents required to be served upon him.

Withdrawal of caveats.

42. A caveat may at any time be withdrawn by the person at whose instance it has been filed, on his filing a notice withdrawing it.

Caveats may be overruled.

43. The Court or a Justice may set aside any caveat.

7. Trial.

Mode of trial.

44. Admiralty actions shall be tried by a Justice without a jury.

46. The entry must be made within six days after notice of trial is given; otherwise the notice of trial shall cease to have effect.

Entry for trial by party served with notice.

47. If the party giving notice of trial omits to enter the cause or issues for trial on the day or the day after giving notice of trial, the party to whom notice has been given may, within four days thereafter, enter the same for trial, unless in the meantime the notice has been countermanded.

Trial in default of appearance.

48. In an Admiralty action, if no appearance has been entered, the plaintiff may, at any time after the time limited for appearance, apply to a Justice for leave to enter the action for trial.

Default of pleading

49. In an Admiralty action, if an appearance has been entered, either party may give notice of trial and enter the action for trial as soon as the last pleading has been delivered, or as soon as the time allowed to the opposite party for delivering any pleading has expired without such pleading having been delivered.

Appointment of early day for trial in Admiralty actions.

50. In Admiralty actions either party may, at any stage of the proceedings, apply to the Court or a Justice for an Order that the trial shall take place on an early day to be appointed by the Court or Justice; and on such application the Court or Justice may appoint that the trial shall take place on any day or within any time which the Court or Justice may think fit; and for such purpose may dispense with giving notice of trial, or may abridge the time or times appointed by these Rules for giving notice of trial or for the delivery of pleadings, or for doing any other act or taking any other proceedings in the action, upon such terms, if any, as may be just.

In case of accounts.

51. In an Admiralty action in rem, if the writ of summons has been indorsed with a claim to have an account taken, or if the liability has been admitted or determined and the question is simply as to the amount due, the Justice may, on the application of either party, fix a time within which the accounts and vouchers, and the proofs in support thereof, shall be filed, and at the expiration of that time either party may give notice of trial and enter the action for trial.

Copies of pleadings, &c., to be delivered

52. The party entering the cause or questions or issues for trial, shall deliver to the proper officer two copies of the whole of the pleadings, if any, and of the issues, or of such other proceedings as show the questions for trial, one of which shall be for the use of the Justice at the trial.

Counsel.

67. Counsel may attend the hearing of any reference, but the expenses attending the employment of counsel shall not be allowed on taxation, unless the Registrar is of opinion that the attendance of counsel was necessary.

Report by Registrar.

68. When a reference has been heard, the Registrar shall make a report in writing of the result in the form of a certificate, showing the amount, if any found due, and to whom, together with any further particulars that may be necessary.

81. Any person interested in the proceeds may be heard before the Taxing Officer on the taxation of the Marshal's account of expenses, and an objection to the taxation shall be heard in the same manner as an objection to the taxation of a solicitor's bill of costs.

ORDER XLIII.

INSPECTION OF PROPERTY: INTERIM PRESERVATION, CUSTODY, AND MANAGEMENT OF PROPERTY: RECEIVERS: STOP ORDERS.

1. Interim Preservation, Custody, and Management of Property.

Inspection, detention, or preservation of property the subject of an action.

1. The Court or a Justice may, upon the application of any party to a cause or matter, and upon such terms as are just, make any order that is necessary for the inspection, detention, or preservation, of any property or thing, being the subject-matter of the litigation, or as to which any question may arise therein, and for any such purposes may authorize any person to enter upon or into any land or building in the possession of any party to the cause or matter, and for any such purposes may authorize any samples to be taken, or any observation to be made or experiment to be tried, which is necessary or expedient for the purpose of obtaining full information or evidence. (a) (b)

As to time for making the application: see r. 7 infra.

As to application for inspection by a jury; see r. 3 infra.

As to preservation or interim custody of the subject matter of a disputed contract: see r. 4 infra.

As to order for sale of perishable goods; see r. 6 infra.

As to inspection of documents; see Order XXIX., r. 11.

(a) In an action against the Commonwealth for infringement of patent after the statement of claim was filed and before defence, the plaintiffs applied for the inspection of the apparatus used by the defendant. An application for a patent in respect of the apparatus used by the Commonwealth was subsequently made, and the specification was made public. Held by the High Court that no order for inspection should be granted at that stage of proceedings. Marconi's Wireless Telegraph Company, Ltd. v. Commonwealth (No. 1) (15, C.L.R. 685 [1912]).

(b) Held by the High Court (per Griffiths, C. J., and Barton, J., Isaacs, J. dissenting), that where a claim is made by the Crown that inspection should not be granted on the ground that, in the opinion of the Minister of the Crown, such inspection would be detrimental to the public welfare, it is not the Court's duty to concede the claim without any inquiry, but it ought first to ascertain what is the nature of the alleged State secret, and whether facts discoverable on inspection can in any intelligible sense prejudice the public welfare.

Marconi's Wireless Telegraph Company, Ltd. v. Commonwealth (No. 2), (16, C.L.R. 178 [1913]). Application for special leave to appeal against the decision of the High Court was made to the Privy Council. The application was dismissed (4th July, 1913). The proceedings before the Privy Council were not reported.

2. Any Justice by whom any cause or matter is heard or tried, with or without jury, or before whom any cause or matter is brought by way of appeal, may inspect any property or thing concerning which any question arises therein.

Inspection by jury.

3. The provisions of Rule 1 of this Order as to inspection shall apply to inspection by a jury, and in that case the Court or a Justice may make all such orders upon the Marshal or other proper officer as are necessary to procure the attendance of the jury at such time and place, and in such manner as the Court or Justice thinks fit.

The Court or Justice shall by the order make such provision as to defraying the expenses of the inspection as is just.

Preservation or interim custody of subject matter of disputed contract.

4. When a prima facie case of liability under a contract is established, the Court or a Justice may make an order for the preservation or interim custody of the subject-matter of the litigation, notwithstanding that there is alleged as matter of defence a right to be relieved wholly or partially from the liability; or may order that the amount in dispute be brought into Court or otherwise secured.

As to the time at which an application for such an order may be made; see r. 5 infra.

As to payment into Court; see Order XXI.

Application when and how made.

5. An application for an order under the last preceding Rule may be made by the plaintiff at any time; and may be made upon the pleadings, if his right appears by the pleadings; or, if there are no pleadings, upon proof of the facts by affidavit or otherwise to the satisfaction of the Court or a Justice.

As to trial without pleadings; see Order XVI.

Order for sale of perishable goods, &c.

6. The Court or a Justice may, on the application of any party to a cause or matter, make an order for the sale, by any persons named in the order, and in such manner, and on such terms as the Court or Justice thinks desirable, of any goods, wares, or merchandise being the subject of the cause or matter, or as to which any question arises therein, which are of a perishable nature or likely to be injured by keeping them, or which for any other just and sufficient reason it is desirable to have sold at once.

As to time for making applications; see r. 7, infra.

Applications for injunction or receiver or for Order under Rule 1 or 6.

7. An application for an injunction or receiver, or for an order under Rule 1 or Rule 6 of this Order, may be made to the Court or a Justice by any party. An application for an injunction or receiver may be made either ex parte or upon notice. Staying Proceedings

General authority to stay.

1. The Court or a Justice may, at any time after the institution of any cause or matter, direct a stay of proceedings, either as to the whole cause or matter, or as to any proceedings therein, or as to any proceedings under a judgment or order given or made therein. (a)

As to staying proceedings pending the giving of security for costs; see Order XXVIII., r. 14.

As to summons not operating as a stay of proceedings, unless stay included therein; see Order XLVI., r. 6.

As to stay of proceedings pending an appeal, see H.C.P. Act, s. 38; Rules of the High Court, Part II., s. 1, r. 26, and Part II., s. 3, r. 22.

(a) In an action against the Commonwealth for infringment of patent the High Court had, on the application of the plaintiffs, made an order for inspection. A notice for a stay of proceedings under the order, pending an application to the Privy Council for special leave to appeal, was made by the defendant, and the circumstances were such that unless the stay was granted the appeal would be rendered nugatory, and that if it was granted simply the whole benefit of the action might be lost to the plaintiffs. Held by the High Court that proceedings should be stayed until the hearing of the application to the Privy Council on the defendants undertaking to expedite the application and to pay such damages, whether legally claimable or not, as the High Court might think just and fair as compensation to the plaintiffs for any damage they might sustain by reason of the stay. Marconi's Wireless Telegraph Co., Ltd. v. Commonwealth (No. 3), (16 C.L.R. 384 [1913]).

Stay of proceedings on ground of abuse of procedure.

2. An application to stay proceedings on the ground that there is no reasonable or probable cause of action or suit, or that the action or suit or proceeding is vexatious and oppressive, or is an abuse of the procedure of the Court, may be made at any time, and whether the plaintiff does or does not admit the allegations of fact, if any, on which the application is founded.

As to striking out pleadings; see Order XVII., rr. 30, 31.

Stay of proceedings.

3. The Court or a Justice may stay the proceedings in any cause or matter improperly instituted in the name of any person by a next friend.

As to proceedings in the name of an infant or person of unsound mind by his next friend; see Order II., rr. 12, 14, 15.

Withdrawing juror.

4. When at the trial of a cause before a Justice with a jury a juror is withdrawn with the consent of the parties, the withdrawal shall have the effect of an order by consent for the staying of all proceedings in the cause or matter, except so far as the Court at the time of the withdrawal, and with the consent of the parties, otherwise orders.

Staying action until costs paid.

5. When an action is discontinued or dismissed for want of prosecution, or judgment of nonsuit is entered, if, before payment of the costs, a subsequent action is brought for the same, or substantially the same, cause of action, the Court or a Justice may order that proceedings in the subsequent action shall be stayed until such costs have been paid.

As to giving security for costs when a second action is brought for the same cause of action; see Order XXVIII., r. 10.

ORDER XLV.

7. Upon the return of the writ the return shall be read, and a motion shall then be made for the disposition of the person therein named, or for amending or quashing the return.

Discharge without writ.

8. When an order to show cause has been made, the Court or Justice may, on the return of the order, direct the discharge or other disposition of the person in question without the issue of a writ of Habeas Corpus, and any such order shall be as effectual as if it had been made on the return of a writ.

ORDER XLIX.

Contempt in the face of the Court.

1. When a person is alleged to be guilty of contempt of Court, committed in the face of the Court, or in the hearing of the Court, the Court may, by verbal order, direct him to be arrested and brought before it forthwith, or the presiding Justice may issue a warrant under his hand for the arrest of the accused person.

When the accused person is brought before the Court, the Court shall cause him to be informed orally of the nature of the contempt with which he is charged, and shall require him to make his defence to the charge, and shall after hearing him proceed, either forthwith or after adjournment, to determine the matter of the charge, and shall make such order for the punishment or discharge of the accused person as is just.

The accused person shall be detained in custody until the charge is disposed of, unless the Court allows him to be discharged on bail.

As to attachment and committal; see Order XLI.

In other cases.

Service.

4. The notice of motion shall be served personally unless the Court or Justice otherwise orders.

As to manner of affecting personal service; see Order LV., r. 1.

Warrant.

5. When a notice of motion for the committal of a person for contempt has been filed, if it is made to appear to a Justice that the accused person is likely to abscond or otherwise withdraw himself from the jurisdiction of the Court, the Justice may by warrant under his hand direct that the accused person shall be arrested and detained in custody until he gives security in such sum as the Justice directs to appear in person and answer the charge and submit to the judgment of the Court.

The warrant shall be directed to the Marshal.

As to security; see Order XXVIII.

Interrogatories may be administered.

7. When the accused person is ordered to answer interrogatories, the hearing of the motion shall be adjourned for a sufficient time to allow the answer to be made and filed.

Punishment.

8. Upon the hearing of the motion the Court may impose a fine instead of ordering the accused person to be committed to prison, or may impose a fine in addition to ordering his committal; and, when it imposes a fine, may order that he be imprisoned, or further imprisoned, until the fine is paid.

9. When the accused person is ordered to be committed to prison, the order of committal shall specify the prison to which he is to be committed. Order of committal.

10. The Court may order the discharge of a person committed to prison for contempt notwithstanding that the time for which he was ordered to be committed has not expired. Discharge.

11. The costs of an application for committal shall be in the discretion of the Court, whether an order for committal is made or not. Costs.

ORDER L.

Appeals in Matters relating to Patent and Trades Marks.

1. Appeals from decisions of the Commissioner of Patents or Registrar of Trade Marks, or Law Officer under the Trade Marks Act, shall be instituted by notice of motion, which shall be filed in the Principal Registry, and shall be served on the Commissioner, or Registrar, or Law Officer, and upon such other persons, and in the same manner, as if the appeal were from a final judgment of a Justice of the High Court, and shall be brought within the time if any (a) prescribed by regulations under the Patents Act or Trade Marks Act respectively or if no time is so prescribed within the same time as is prescribed for appeals from a final judgment of a Justice of the High Court. How instituted.

(a) The regulations under the Patents Act, 1903-1909, and the Trade Marks Act, 1905-1912, prescribe "twenty-one days after the date of the decision appealed against or such further time as the Court on application made within twenty-one days allows."

2. If the motion is to be made before the Full Court it shall, unless otherwise ordered by the Court or a Justice, be set down for hearing at the first Sittings of the Court appointed to be held at the Principal Seat of the Court after the expiration of one month from the service of the notice of motion. If the motion is to be heard by a single justice in Court it shall be set down for hearing on a day appointed for that purpose. Ten days' notice shall be given by the appellant to the respondent of the day for which the appeal has been set down to be heard. Sitting.

3. It shall not be necessary for a respondent to give notice of cross appeal, but, if a respondent intends upon the hearing of an appeal to contend that the decision appealed from should be varied, he shall, four days before the day for which the appeal has been set down to be heard, give notice of his intention to such of the parties as may be affected by such contention. The omission to give such notice shall not diminish the powers of the Court when hearing the appeal, but may, in the discretion of the Court, be ground for an adjournment of the hearing, or for a special order as to costs. Cross appeals.

4. The Commissioner or Registrar, as the case may be, shall forthwith after service of the notice of motion on him forward to the Principal Registrar of the High Court copies of all such documents as may be necessary for the hearing of the appeal. Documents to be forwarded to Principal Registry.

Papers for Justices.

5. Four days at least before the day for which the appeal has been set down to be heard, the appellant shall lodge in the Registry situated in the place where the appeal is to be heard, a copy of the documents referred to in the last preceding Rule for the Justice, or each of the Justices, by whom the appeal is to be heard. The cost of copies of unnecessary documents will not be allowed.

ORDER LI.

Revocation of Patents.

Title.

1. A petition for revocation of a patent shall be addressed to the High Court.

Form.

2. Every petition shall contain a statement, as brief as the nature of the case will allow, of the material facts on which the petitioner relies, but not of the evidence by which they are to be proved, nor, except so far as they are material, the contents of documents. The petition shall, when necessary, be divided into paragraphs, numbered consecutively, and each containing, as nearly as may be, a separate allegation. Dates, sums, and numbers may be expressed in figures or in words. Signature of counsel shall not be necessary, but the petition shall be signed by the solicitor of the party, or by the party himself, if he proceeds in person.

Persons to be served.

3. At the foot of every petition, and of every copy thereof, a statement shall be made of the persons, if any, intended to be served therewith, and, if no persons intended to be served, a statement to that effect shall be made at the foot of the petition.

Filing.

4. Every petition shall be filed.

Notice to appear.

5. Upon the filing of the petition the proper officer shall, if it is intended to be served, indorse thereon a notice requiring the parties respondents to the petition to enter an appearance in the cause within the same time, and at the same place, as if the petition were a writ of summons in an action.

A copy of such notice sealed with the office seal shall be indorsed upon every copy of the petition intended for service.

Service.

6. The service of a petition shall be effected by serving the party with a copy of the petition, indorsed as aforesaid, in the same manner, in which a writ of summons in an action is required to be served, except that the original petition and memorandum need not be produced.

As to service of writ of summons; see Order V., rr. 12-14.

Appointment of time for hearing.

7. At any time after the time limited for appearance either party may apply to a Justice to appoint a day and place for hearing the petition.

Dismissal for want of prosecution.

8. If the petitioner does not within six months after he is first entitled to do so apply for the appointment of a time and place for hearing the petition, any respondent may apply to the Court or a Justice to dismiss the petition for want of prosecution, and, on the hearing of such application, the Court or Justice may order the petition to be dismissed accordingly, or make such other order, and on such terms as the Court or Justice may seem just.

ORDER LIA.

1. A taxpayer who is dissatisfied with an assessment made by the Commissioner of Land Tax, or in the case of an assessment of land situated in one State only, by a Deputy Commissioner, may within thirty days after the service upon him by post of notice of the decision of the Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner appeal from such decision.

2.—Income Tax Appeals.

4. A taxpayer who is dissatisfied with an assessment made by the Commissioner of Taxation may within thirty days after the service by post of notice of the decision of the Commissioner appeal from such decision.

When a taxpayer, in pursuance of Section 37 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1915, asks the Commissioner to treat his notice of objection as an appeal, the Commissioner shall forthwith forward the notice of objection to the Court to which the appeal is to be brought, and shall give notice to the taxpayer that he has done so. Such last-mentioned notice shall have the same operation, and thereupon the same proceedings shall be taken as if the taxpayer had on the date thereof served a notice of appeal to the same effect under the last preceding Rule.

Hearing.

6. The appeal shall be set down for hearing on a day appointed by the Court to which it is brought for the hearing of such appeals. Ten days notice shall be given by the appellant to the respondent of the day for which the appeal has been set down to be heard.

Process to be returned.

1. The Marshal and every other officer charged with the execution of process shall return the process into Court if required by the party by whom it is sued out.

The same fees are to be taken as by the practice of the Supreme Court of the State in which the proceeding is taken or the act is done or authorised and required to be taken by the Sheriff in respect of a like proceeding or act in a cause pending in that Court.

2. The return shall be made by filing the original process in the Registry, with a certificate indorsed thereon or annexed thereto, and signed by the Marshal or his deputy, or such other officer as aforesaid, and setting forth what has been done under the process..

Return of non est inventus.

3. When a writ of summons or other process is delivered to the Marshal or other officer specially appointed in that behalf for service upon any person, and the Marshal or officer is unable to find the person to be served, he shall, if so required by the party by whom the process was delivered to him, return the process into Court in the same manner as in the case of process of execution, with a certificate setting forth the inability.

Return of writ

4. No order shall issue for the return of any writ, or to bring in the body of a person ordered to be attached or committed: but a notice to the Marshal by the solicitor of the party at whose suit the writ was issued, or the order for attachment or committal was obtained, or by the party himself if he sues or appears in person, requiring the Marshal to return the writ or to make his report or to bring in the body within a specified time, shall, if not complied with, entitle the party to apply for an order for the attachment of the Marshal.

The time specified in the notice shall not be less than eight days.

Any such notice may be given in vacation as well as at any other time.

As to attachment of persons; see Order XLI.

As to committal; see Order XLIX.

As to computation of time; see Order LIII.

Attendance of Marshal in Court.

Or his officers.

6. Whenever, by reason of distance or any other sufficient cause, the Marshal or his deputy cannot conveniently execute any instrument in person, he shall employ some fit person as his officer to execute it.

ORDER LIII.

Time.

Exclusion of Sundays and Court holidays.

1. When any limited time less than six days from or after any date or event is appointed or allowed for doing any act or taking any proceeding, Sundays and Court holidays shall not be reckoned in the computation of the time.

As to Court holidays; see Order LVI., r. 4.

Time expiring on close day.

2. When the time for doing any act or taking any proceeding expires on a Sunday or Court holiday, and by reason thereof the act or proceeding cannot be done or taken on that day, the act or proceeding shall, so far as regards the time of doing or taking it, be held to be duly done or taken if done or taken on the next day which is not a Sunday or Court holiday.

As to Court holidays; see Order LVI., r. 4.

No delivery of pleadings in vacation.

3. Pleadings shall not be delivered or amended in the vacations unless directed by the Court or a Justice.

As to delivery of pleadings; see Order XVII., et seq.

As to vacations; see order LVI., r. 3.

Vacation not to be reckoned in time for delivery, &c., of pleadings.

4. The time of the vacations shall not be reckoned in the computation of the times appointed or allowed by these Rules for filing, amending, or delivering any pleading, unless so directed by the Court or a Justice.

The time for vacations is reckoned in calculating the time within which notice of motion for new trial must be served; see Part II., sec. 1, r. 22.

As to vacations; see Order LVI., r. 3.

Time for giving security for costs when not to be reckoned.

5. The day on which an order for security for costs is served, and the time thenceforward until and including the day on which the security is given, shall not be reckoned in the computation of the time allowed for pleading, answering interrogatories, or taking any other proceeding in the cause.

As to security for costs; see Order XXVIII., r. 9.

Power of Court or Justice to enlarge or abridge time.

6. The Court or a Justice may enlarge or abridge the time for doing any act or taking any proceeding allowed or limited by these Rules, or allowed or limited for the like purpose by any order of the Court or a Justice, whether so allowed by way of enlargement or otherwise, upon such terms, if any, as the justice of the case requires; and any such enlargement may be ordered although the application for the same is not made until after the expiration of the time originally allowed or limited. (a)

(a) Per Griffiths, C.J.: Rule 6 of Order LIII. does not apply to an appeal from the Supreme Court of the State, and the High Court has no jurisdiction to extend the time for giving notice of such an appeal: Lever Bros. Ltd. v. G. Mowling & Son (5 C.L.R. 510 [1908]); 14 A.L.R. 73 [1908]). Held by the High Court that the provisions of Section V., r. 1 of the Appeal Rules do not make this rule applicable to the filing of notices of appeal under the Appeal Rules, so as to give the High Court jurisdiction to enlarge or abridge the time for filing copy of a notice of appeal. Ryan v. Rounsevell (10 C.L.R. 186 [1910]).

This decision was approved in the case of Delph Sing v. Karbowsky (18 C.L.R. 197 [1914]). The High Court held that where a plaintiff gave notice of appeal from a decision of the Supreme Court of a State, but did not give security within three months after service of the notice of appeal, as required by Rule 12, Section 3, of the Appeal Rules, the time for giving security could not be enlarged under this rule.

Time of day for service.

7. Service of pleadings, notices, summonses, orders, rules, and other proceedings, shall be effected before four o'clock in the afternoon, except on Saturdays, when it shall be effected before twelve o'clock noon. Service effected after four o'clock in the afternoon on any week day except Saturday shall, for the purpose of computing any period of time subsequent to the service, be deemed to have been effected on the following day. Service effected after twelve o'clock noon on Saturday shall for the like purpose be deemed to have been effected on the following Monday.

As to service generally; see Order LV.
As to service of originating proceedings; see Order VIII.

Notice after delay of one year.

8. When no proceeding has been taken in a cause for one whole year from the time when the last proceeding was taken, any party who desires to proceed shall, before taking any step in the cause, give a month's notice to every other party of his intention to proceed. When six years have elapsed from the time when the last proceeding was taken, no fresh proceeding shall be taken without the order of the Court or a Justice, which may be made either ex parte or upon notice. A summons on which no order has been made shall not be deemed a proceeding within this Rule; but notice of trial, although avoided by non-entry or countermanded, shall be deemed such a proceeding.

ORDER LIV.

Costs.

Costs to be in the discretion of the Court.

1. Subject to the provisions of these Rules, the costs of and incident to all proceedings in the Court shall be in the discretion of the Court or a Justice: Provided that, when any cause or issue is tried with a jury, the costs shall follow the event, unless the Justice by whom the cause or issue is tried, or the Court, for good cause otherwise orders.

As to security for costs; see Order XXVIII., r. 9.
As to security on appeal; see H.C.P. Act, ss. 35, 36.

Costs of issues to follow event.

2. When several issues, whether of fact or law, are raised in a cause, the costs of the several issues respectively, both of law and fact, shall, unless otherwise ordered, follow the event.

Costs of cause removed from inferior Court.

3. When a cause is removed from an inferior Court which had jurisdiction in the cause, the costs in the Court below shall be costs in the cause.

As to certiorari; see Order XLVII., rr. 7-12.

Costs of solicitor guardian ad litem.

4. When a solicitor acts as the guardian ad litem of an infant, or is appointed to be guardian ad litem of a person of unsound mind, in any cause or matter, the Court or a Justice may direct that the costs to be incurred in the performance of the duties of such office shall be borne and paid either by the parties to the cause or matter, or some of them, or out of any fund in Court in which the infant or person of unsound mind is interested, and may give directions for the repayment or allowance of such costs as the justice and circumstances of the case require.

As to appointment of guardian ad litem; see Order II., rr. 12-16.

Costs out of estate.

5. The costs occasioned by an unsuccessful claim or unsuccessfu resistance to any claim to any property shall not be paid out of the estate unless the Court or a Justice so orders.

Distribution not to be delayed by difficulties as to some shares.

6. When some of the persons entitled to a distributive share of a fund are ascertained, and difficulty or delay has occurred or is likely to occur in ascertaining the persons entitled to the other shares, the Court or a Justice may order or allow immediate payment of their shares to the persons ascertained without reserving any part of those shares to answer the subsequent costs of ascertaining the persons entitled to the other shares; and in any such case such orders may be made for the ascertainment and payment of the costs incurred down to and including such payment as the Court or Justice thinks just.

Set-off of damages and of costs in same cause or matter

7. When in any cause or matter any sum of money is ordered to be paid by one party to another, whether for debt, damages, or costs, and in the same cause or matter the party to whom the sum is to be paid is ordered to pay any sum, whether for debt, damages, or costs, to the party by whom the first-mentioned sum is to be paid, one of the sums shall be set-off against the other without any order for that purpose, and the balance, if any, shall be payable by the party by whom the larger sum is ordered to be paid, and to the other party.

As to the costs of different issues following the event; see r. 2, supra.
As to set off in different causes of matter; see r. 8, infra.

Set-off in different causes or matters.

8. Money recovered by one party against another party in any cause or matter shall not be set-off against money recovered by the latter party against the former in another cause or matter, except subject to the liens of their respective solicitors upon the sum so recovered, but may be set-off subject to such liens.

Costs of incidental applications.

9. Unless the Court or a Justice otherwise orders, the costs of a motion or application in a cause shall be deemed to be part of the costs of the cause of the party in whose favour the motion or application is determined, unless the motion or application is unopposed, in which case the costs of both parties shall be deemed to be part of their costs of the cause, unless the Court or a Justice otherwise orders.

Costs of motion not disposed of.

10. When a motion or application or other proceeding is ordered to stand over to the trial, and no order is made at the trial as to the costs of the motion, application, or proceeding, the costs of both parties of such motion, application, or proceeding shall be deemed to be part of their costs of the cause.

As to costs reserved ; see r. 11, infra.

Costs reserved.

11. When the costs of any motion or application or other proceeding in a cause or matter are reserved by the Court or Justice, no costs of such motion, application, or proceeding shall be allowed to either party without the order of the Court or Justice.

Costs when further proceedings become unnecessary.

12. When for any reason the further prosecution of any cause or matter becomes unnecessary except for the purpose of determining by whom the costs of the cause or matter should be paid, any party may apply to the Court or a Justice to determine that question, and thereupon the Court or Justice may make such order as is just.

Costs of unnecessarily expensive proceedings.

13. When a party takes proceedings of an unnecessarily expensive character, the Court may order the costs incurred by the proceedings so far as they are in excess of the costs which would have been incurred by proceedings of a less expensive character, to be borne and paid by the party by whom the proceedings are taken, although he is otherwise entitled to the costs of the cause or matter. (a)

(a) Preparing typewritten or printed copies of documents or of evidence for an appeal is not taking a proceeding within the meaning of Order LIV., r. 13 (Order XLIV., r. 13, 1903) : Peacock v. Osborne (No. 2) (13 A.L.R. 254 [1907]).

Amount of costs.

14. The fees payable to barristers and solicitors in respect of business transacted by them in the High Court or the offices thereof shall, unless otherwise ordered, be taxed, allowed, and certified by the Registrar or a Deputy Registrar, or some other officer duly appointed for the purpose, and shall be allowed in accordance, as nearly as may be, with the scale of costs applicable, under the practice of the Supreme Court of the State in which the business is transacted, to business of an analogous nature transacted in that Supreme Court or the offices thereof. (a) to (f).

(a) Under Section 148 of the Victorian Justices Act, 1890, the amount of costs which can be allowed in the Supreme Court upon an order to review a decision of a Court of Petty Sessions, is limited to £20. Held by the High Court that this rule does not make that section applicable to appeals to the High Court by the way of orders to review from Courts of Petty Sessions exercising Federal jurisdiction: Lyons v. Smart (6 C.L.R. 285 [1908]; 14 A.L.R. 649 [1908]).

(b) Where the respondent had been ordered to pay a part of the petitioner's taxed costs, the fee paid to the petitioner's counsel in respect of the whole petition may, on taxation be allowed in full, if the amount is a fair and reasonable fee in respect of the matter on which the petitioner succeeds: Chanter v. Blackwood (No. 3) (1 C.L.R. 456 [1904]).

(c) Held on a motion to rescind an order granting special leave to appeal from the Supreme Court, that the order was properly made, the question raised being an important question of law, and of general interest to the mercantile community, that the attendance of the appellant at the taxation of costs, after the judgment of the Full Court appealed from, was not an act of acquiescence that would preempt the appeal, and that a delay of two months in applying for leave to appeal, the respondent not having been prejudiced thereby, was not, under the circumstances, a sufficient ground for rescinding the order of leave: Ex parte Britz (4 S.R. (N.S.W.) 116 [1904]; 21 W.N. (N.S.W.) 18 [affirmed]); Donohoe v. Britz (1 C.L.R. 391 [1904]).

(d) Where the hearing of an appeal other than on a question of abstract law has been transferred, by order of the Court acting on its own initiative and not at the request of parties, to a State other than that of origin, the successful party to whom costs were given, may in a proper case be allowed the costs and expenses of sending the managing clerk of their Solicitors in the State of origin to instruct counsel at the hearing of the appeal. The matter is primarily one for the exercise of the taxing officer's discretion, but this discretion will be freely reviewed by the Court employing its own knowledge of the special circumstances of the case. Principles suggested for the guidance of the taxing officer in arriving at the amount of costs to be allowed: Western Australian Bank v. Royal Insurance Co. (7 C.L.R. 385 [1908]; 14 A.L.R. 189 [1908]).

(e) Upon an appeal to the High Court the appellants costs begin with the instructions to appeal and the costs of obtaining counsel's opinion as to the advisability of an appeal, though allowable as between solicitor and client, are not allowable as between party and party: City Bank of Sydney v. McLaughlin (10 C.L.R. 362 [1909]).

(f) On the taxation of costs of proceedings in the High Court to determine the amount of compensation payable for land acquired by the Commonwealth under the Lands Acquisition Act 1906, the Taxing Officer has an unfettered discretion to allow a fee to counsel to view the land acquired, and the question he should consider is whether, under the circumstances of the particular case, the fee was necessary or proper for the attainment of justice: The Minister for Home Affairs v. Beale (22 C.L.R. 98 [1916]).

15. Every taxation of costs shall be subject to review by a Justice (a)

(a) The Registrar, on taxation of costs as between party and party, disallowed the costs of a third counsel in an appeal to the High Court, and on a summons for a review of taxation, the Court refused to direct a review and dismissed the summons with costs: Donohoe v. Britz (No. 2) (1 C.L.R. 662 [1904]). Review of Taxation.

ORDER LV.

SERVICE.

Personal service.

When any document is required to be served personally, service shall, unless otherwise provided by Rules of Court, be effected by delivering to the person to be served a copy of the document to be served, and, if that document is not the original document, at the same time showing him the original if he so requires, or by delivering to him an office copy of the document to be served.

Service so effected in accordance with any such order shall have the same operation as personal service (a)

As to substituted service of originating proceedings; see Order VIII., rr. 8, 9.

(a) Held by the High Court that an appeal to the High Court could not be entertained in the absence of service, personal or substituted, of the notice of appeal upon a wife : Machin v. Machin (21 C.L.R. 127 [1916]).

As to attachment and committal; see Orders XLI., XLIX.

Mode and time of service when not personal.

4. Any document of which personal service is not prescribed by an Act or by these Rules, shall be sufficiently served if left within the prescribed hours, if any, at the address for service of the person to be served as defined by these Rules with any person resident at or belonging to that place.

As to indorsement of address for service; see Order I., rr. 3, 4.
As to time of day for service; see Order LIII., r. 7.

2. General.

Non-compliance with Rules not to render proceedings void.

No proceedings are invalidated by any formal defect or irregularity; see H.C.P. Act, s. 24.

PART II.—APPELLATE JURISDICTION.

APPEAL RULES.

SECTION I.

Appeals from Justices of the High Court and New Trials.

1. Appeals.

Appeals to be by way of rehearing.

1. Appeals to a Full Court from judgments of Justices of the High Court, whether in Court or Chambers, shall be by way of rehearing.

As to power of Full Court to receive further evidence; see r. 10 infra.

As to expediting hearing; see r. 28 infra.

As to inspection by a Justice of property or thing when cause or matter is on appeal; see Order XLIII., r. 2.

Place for hearing appeals.

2. Unless otherwise directed by the Court or a Justice, appeals shall be heard at the seat of Government of the State in a Registry whereof the cause is pending. The Court or a Justice may direct that any appeal shall be heard at the seat of Government of some other State.

As to sittings of the Full Court; see Order LVI., r. 1.

Mode of instituting appeals.

3. Appeals shall be instituted by notice of appeal, which shall be served and filed as hereinafter provided; and no petition, case, or other formal proceeding other than the notice of appeal shall be necessary. The appellant may by the notice of appeal appeal from the whole or any part of the judgment appealed from, and the notice of appeal shall state whether the whole or part only of the judgment is complained of, and in the latter case shall specify the part complained of. The notice of appeal shall state shortly the grounds on which the appellant intends to rely.

As to power of High Court to make rules prescribing the times and manner of instituting appeals; see H.C.P. Act, s. 37.

As to security not being required except under order of the High Court; see H.C.P. Act, s. 35.

As to stay of proceedings pending appeal; see H.C.P. Act, s. 38.

As to appeal by personal representative on the death of a party to a judgment see H.C.P. Act, s. 39.

To whom notice to be given.

4. The notice of appeal shall be served upon all parties directly affected by the appeal, and it shall not be necessary to serve parties not so affected; but the Full Court may direct notice of appeal to be served on all or any parties to the cause or matter, or upon any person not a party, and in the meantime may postpone or adjourn the hearing of the appeal upon such terms as are just, and may give such judgment and make such order as might have been given or made if the persons served with such notice had been originally parties. The notice of appeal may be amended at any time as the Full Court thinks fit.

As to amendment generally; see H.C.P. Act, ss. 23, 24; and Order XXVII.

As to service; see Order LV.

Time.

5. The notice of appeal must be served within the times (a), (b), (c) following, respectively, that is to say:—

(1) If the appeal is from a final judgment, within twenty-one days from the date of the judgment:

(2) In any other case within ten days (d) from the date of the judgment or order; or,

(3) In either case within such extended times as the Court or a Justice allows.

The said periods shall be reckoned from the date when the judgment or order was pronounced, or, in the case of the refusal of an application, from the date of the refusal.

The times of the vacations shall be reckoned in the computations of the said periods.

In this Rule the term "final judgment" includes any judgment, decree, order, or sentence, by which the rights of the parties are finally concluded with respect to the matters in question in the cause or matter, or any of them, not being a decision upon a mere matter of procedure. (e)

(a) Order LIII., r. 6 (Rules of the High Court, 1903, Part I., Order XLV., r. 6) does not apply to an appeal from the Supreme Court of a State and the High Court has no jurisdiction to extend the time for giving notice of such an appeal: Lever Bros., Ltd. v. Mowling & Son (5 C.L.R. 510 [1908]).

(b) A notice of appeal was during vacation, when the offices of the High Court are open till one o'clock, handed to an Officer of the Court at three o'clock in the afternoon on the last day of filing. Held that the copy of the appeal was not filed within the prescribed time: Ryan v. Rounsevell (10 C.L.R. 176 [1910]).

(c) Through inadvertence on the part of the defendant's solicitor, notice of appeal to the High Court from the judgment of the Supreme Court of a State, an appeal from which, to the High Court lay as of right, was not given within the prescribed time. Held, that in the special circumstances of the case special leave to appeal should be granted: Russell v. Russell (24 C.L.R. 19 [1917]).

(d) An order made by a Justice of the High Court dismissing a suit as frivolous and vexatious is not a final judgment within the meaning of r. 5 of the Appeal Rules Section I, and, therefore, notice of appeal from such order must be filed within ten days from the date of the order, as required by rule 5, sub-section 2: Roberts v. Roberts & Moffatt (7 C.L.R. 566 [1908]).

(e) Roberts v. Roberts & Moffatt, (7 C.L.R. 566 [1908]).

Notice to Registrar.

6. The appellant shall, within the time prescribed by the last preceding Rule for serving the notice of appeal, file a copy of the notice in the Registry of the High Court in which the case is pending. And upon such service and filing the appeal shall be deemed to be duly instituted.

The fee payable on filing a copy of notice of motion instituting an appeal is 5/-.

Appeals from refusal of ex parte applications.

7. When an ex parte application has been refused by a single Justice, the application may be renewed ex parte by way of appeal to a Full Court.

The application may be made at any sitting of a Full Court held within fourteen days, from the date of the refusal, or, if a Full Court is not sitting on the last of those days, at any time not later than the first day of the next sittings of a Full Court, or within such extended time as the Court allows. (a). (b)

As to computation of time, see Order LIII.

(a) See note to r. 5 (d) supra; Roberts v. Roberts & Moffatt (7 C.L.R. 566 [1908]).

(b) As to enlargement or abridgement of time, see Ryan v. Rounsevell (10 C.L.R. 176 [1910]).

Length of notice.

8. Notice of appeal from a final judgment shall be for the first sitting of a Full Court held after the expiration of twenty-one days from the institution of the appeal, unless the respondent consents to take shorter notice. In other cases the notice of appeal shall be for the first sitting of a Full Court held after the expiration of twenty-one days from the institution of the appeal, unless the respondent consents to take shorter notice.

As to what constitutes a final judgment; see r. 5, supra.

As to computation of time; see Order LIII.

Time for setting down.

9. Every appeal, not being an application by way of renewal of an ex parte application which has been refused, shall, unless the Court otherwise directs, be set down for hearing ten days at least before the day for which the notice is given.

As to appeals from refusal of ex parte applications; see r. 7, supra.

As to computation of time, see Order LIII.

Amendment Further evidence

10. The Full Court shall have all powers and duties as to amendment and otherwise of the Court or Justice appealed from, and shall have full discretionary power to receive further evidence upon questions of fact, which evidence may be taken either by oral examination in Court, by affidavit, or by deposition taken before an examiner or commissioner. Such further evidence may be given without special leave except upon appeals from final judgments, and, in any case, as to matters which have occurred after the date of the decision from which the appeal is brought.

Upon an appeal from a judgment after the trial or hearing of a cause or matter upon the merits, such further evidence, save as to matters subsequent as aforesaid, shall not be admitted except on special grounds. (a)

As to powers and duties of the Court as to amendment; see H.C.P. Act, ss. 23, 24, and Order XXVII.

As to evidence; see H.C.P. Act, s. 16, et seq.

As to orders and examination of witness; see H.C.P. Act, s. 19, and Order XXXIV.

As to evidence by affidavit, see H.C.P. Act, s. 20, and Order XXXV.

As to final judgments, see r. 5 supra.

(a) On an appeal to the Full Court of the High Court from the judgment of a Justice of that Court, the appellant applied for leave to call further evidence. The Court being of the opinion that further evidence should be taken, set aside the judgment and ordered a new trial on the terms that the appellant should pay the costs of the first trial of the appeal: Buzacott v. Cyclone Pty., Ltd. (27 C.L.R. 286 [1920]).

Powers of Court on appeal.

11. The Court, upon the hearing of an appeal, shall have power to draw inferences of fact, not inconsistent with the findings of the jury, if any, and to give any judgment and make any order which ought to have been given or made in the first instance, and to make such further or other order as the case requires.

The powers aforesaid may be exercised by the Court notwithstanding that the notice of appeal is that part only of the decision may be reversed or varied, and such powers may be exercised in favour of all or any of the respondents or parties, although such respondents or parties have not appealed from or complained of the decision.

The Court shall have power to make such order as to the whole or any part of the costs of appeal as is just.

As to power of Court to grant a new trial; see H.C.P. Act, s. 14.

Cross appeals.

12. It shall not be necessary for a respondent to give notice of cross appeal, but if a respondent intends upon the hearing of an appeal to contend that the decision appealed from should be varied, he shall within the time prescribed by the next following Rule, or such time as is allowed by special order of the Court or a Justice in any case, give notice of his intention to such of the parties as may be affected by such contention. The omission to give such notice shall not diminish the powers of the Court when hearing the appeal, but may, in the discretion of the Court, be ground for an adjournment of the appeal or for a special order as to costs. A copy shall be filed in the Registry.

Time.

13. Subject to any special order which is made in any case, notice by a respondent under the last preceding Rule shall be given ten clear days before the day for which the notice of appeal is given.

As to computation of time ; see Order LIII.

Transmission of Documents.

14. When the appeal is directed to be heard at a place other than that in which the Registry in which the cause is pending is situated the Registrar of the last-mentioned Registry shall transmit to the Registrar of the Registry situated at the place at which the appeal is to be heard all such documents as may be necessary for the hearing of the appeal. After the appeal has been disposed of, they shall be returned to the Registry in which the cause is pending.

Papers for Justices.

15. Four days at least before the commencement of the sitting for which the notice of appeal is given the appellant shall, unless otherwise ordered, lodge in the Registry situated in the place where the appeal is to be heard five printed copies of the Justice's notes taken at the hearing, including the notes of evidence, if any, and also a copy of the pleadings, if any, and of such other documents as may be necessary for the purposes of the appeal. The cost of copies of unnecessary documents will not be allowed.

As to regard being had to Justice's notes where question arises as to the ruling or directions of the Justice to a Jury; see r. 25, infra.

As to reasons of Justice's decision appealed from being included among papers; see r. 27, infra.

Printing may be dispensed with.

16. The Court or a Justice may in any case upon such terms as it or he thinks fit dispense with the printing of such documents, or of any portion thereof, and may direct a greater or less number of printed copies to be lodged, and may also direct printed copies to be served upon any person not a party to the case or matter.

Interlocutory orders not appealed from not to bar relief

17. An interlocutory order or rule from which there has been no appeal shall not operate to prevent the Court, upon hearing an appeal, from giving such decision upon the appeal as is just.

Rule nisi on appeal.

18. When on an appeal from the refusal of an ex parte application the Court is of opinion that a rule nisi or order nisi should have been granted, the Court may grant a rule or order nisi returnable either before a Full Court or before a Court constituted by a single Justice.

2. New Trials.

Applications for new trials of causes heard before a Justice.

19. Except as by Rules of Court is otherwise specially provided, every application for a new trial or to set aside a verdict, finding, or judgment, in a cause or matter where there has been a trial by a Justice of the High Court without a jury, shall be made by appeal to a Full Court.

As to application for new trial of cases tried by jury; see r. 20, infra.

Applications for new trials of cases tried by jury to be by notice of motion.

20. Every application for a new trial or to set aside a verdict, finding, or judgment, in a cause or matter in which a verdict has been found by a jury, shall be made to a Full Court by motion upon notice. No rule nisi or order to show cause or other formal proceeding other than the notice of motion shall be made or taken. The notice shall state the grounds of the application, and whether all or part only of the verdict, finding, or judgment, is complained of.

Amendment of notice.

21. The notice may be amended at any time by leave of the Court or a Justice, upon such terms as the Court or Justice thinks just.

Time.

22. The notice of motion must be served upon the party in whose favour the judgment was given within twenty-one days from the conclusion of the trial or the date of the pronouncing of the judgment upon further consideration, as the case may be; or within such extended time as the Court or a Justice allows.

The time of the vacations shall be reckoned in the computation of the period aforesaid.

General practice.

23. Except as aforesaid, all the provisions of the foregoing Rules of this section relating to appeals shall apply to applications for new trials or to set aside verdicts, findings, or judgments, in causes or matters in which a verdict has been found by a jury.

As to trial by jury; see H.C.P. Act, s. 12, et seq.

Power of Court.

24. Upon the hearing of an application for a new trial or to set aside the verdict or finding of a jury, the Court may, if satisfied that it has before it all the materials necessary for finally determining the questions in dispute, or any of them, or for awarding any relief sought, give judgment accordingly, and may for that purpose draw any inference of fact not inconsistent with the findings of the jury, if any; or may, if it is of opinion that it has not sufficient materials before it to enable it to give judgment, direct the motion to stand over for further consideration, and may direct such issues or questions to be tried or determined and such accounts and inquiries to be taken and made as it thinks fit.

As to power of High Court to impose conditions or direct admissions on a new trial, and to grant it generally or on some particular points only, and to order testimony of a witness to be read on a new trial; see H.C.P. Act, s. 14.

As to powers of Court on appeal; see r. 11, supra.

3. General Provisions.

Notes of ruling or direction.

25. If, upon the hearing of an appeal or application for a new trial or to set aside a verdict or finding of a jury, a question arises as to the ruling or direction of the Justice to a jury, the Court shall have regard to the Justice's notes, and to such other evidence or materials as the Court deems expedient.

Appeal or motion for a new trial not to be stay of proceedings.

26. An appeal or motion for a new trial or to set aside a verdict, finding, or judgment, shall not operate as a stay of proceedings unless the Court or a Justice so orders. Any such order may be made as to the whole or any part of the proceedings in the cause or matter, and may be made upon such terms as the Court or Justice granting the stay thinks fit.

No intermediate act or proceeding shall be invalidated except so far as the Full Court directs.

As to stay of proceedings on institution of an appeal; see H.C.P. Act, s. 38, and Order XLIV., r. 1.

Reasons of Justices.

27. When the reasons for the decision of the Justice whose decision is appealed from have been given in writing, or are recorded in writing, a copy thereof shall be included with the documents transmitted to the Registry situated at the place at which the appeal is to be heard and shall be left at the Justices' Chambers.

Hearing may be expedited.

28. The hearing of an appeal, or of a motion for a new trial or to set aside a verdict or finding of a jury, may be expedited by order of the Court or a Justice.

SECTION II.

Appeals from Decisions of Judges of the Supreme Courts of the States in Causes or Matters Pending in the High Court.

Provisions of section I. to apply with certain modifications.

1. All the provisions of section I. of these Rules shall apply to appeals to the High Court from judgments of Judges of the Supreme Courts of the States sitting as Judges of first instance in the exercise of federal jurisdiction in causes or matters pending in the High Court, and to applications for new trials, or to set aside a verdict, finding, or judgment in any such cause or matter, subject nevertheless to the modifications set forth in the two (a) following Rules.

(a) As originally enacted, Section 2 of the Appeal Rules contained three rules. Since then the present Rule 2 has been inserted and new rules, 3 and 4, have been substituted for those originally standing as 2 and 3 respectively.

Place for hearing appeals.

2. Unless otherwise directed by the Court or a Justice such appeals and applications shall be heard at the seat of Government of the State. The Court or a Justice may direct that any such appeal or application shall be heard at the seat of Government of some other State.

Notice of appeal to be filed in Supreme Court and High Court.

3. A copy of the notice of appeal, or notice of motion for a new trial, or to set aside the verdict, finding, or judgment, shall be filed in the Supreme Court, and a copy shall also be filed in the Registry of the High Court situated at the seat of Government of the State; and the appeal shall not be deemed to be duly instituted until these copies have been filed.

Delivery and transmission of documents.

4. The proper officer of the Supreme Court shall deliver to the Registrar of the last-mentioned Registry of the High Court such documents as are necessary for the hearing of the appeal; and that Registrar, if the appeal is not to be heard in the State, shall transmit them to the Registrar of the Registry of the High Court situated at the place where the appeal is to be heard.

After the appeal or motion has been disposed of, the documents shall be returned to the proper officer of the Supreme Court, by or through the Registrar of the Registry in the State as the case may be.

SECTION III.

Appeals from Supreme Courts of the States.

Mode of instituting appeals.

1. Appeals to the High Court from judgments of the Supreme Court of any State, or any other Court of any State from which at the establishment of the Commonwealth an appeal lay to the Queen in Council, shall be instituted by notice of appeal (a), which shall be served and filed as hereinafter provided, and by giving the prescribed security; and no petition, case, or other formal proceeding other than the notice of appeal and security shall be necessary. The appellant may, by the notice of appeal, appeal from the whole or any part of the judgment appealed from, and the notice of appeal shall state whether the whole or part only of the judgment is complained of, and in the latter case shall specify the part complained of. The notice of appeal shall state shortly the grounds on which the appellant intends to rely.

As to power to grant a new trial; see H.C.P. Act, s. 14.

As to security; see H.C.P. Act, s. 35, r. 12, infra.

As to stay of proceedings under the judgment appealed from, see H.C.P. Act s. 38; r. 22, infra.

(a) Held by the High Court that an appeal by a husband to the High Court could not be entertained in the absence of service, personal or substituted, of the notice of appeal upon the wife: Machin v. Machin (21 C.L.R. 127 [1916]).

Place for hearing appeals.

2. Unless otherwise directed by the Court or a Justice, appeals shall be heard at the seat of Government of the State from a Court whereof the appeal is brought. The Court or a Justice may direct that any appeal shall be heard at the seat of Government of some other State.

Leave to appeal.

3. Leave or special leave to appeal to the High Court from any such judgment (b) where leave or special leave is required may be given by the High Court upon motion ex parte (c), and on such conditions, if any, as the Court thinks fit. On the hearing of the motion, such evidence shall be given on affidavit as the High Court requires (d). An order for leave or special leave to appeal may be rescinded on the motion of any respondent.

As to affidavits generally; see Order XXXV.

(a) Where an appeal brought as of right was at the time it came on for hearing struck out on the objection of the respondent that it was incompetent for the reason that the judgment appealed from was below the appealable amount, the Court allowed the respondent such costs only as would have been incurred on a motion to strike out the appeal: Porta v. Hauser (27 C.L.R. 192 [1919]).

(b) Held by the High Court that in applications for special leave to appeal, counsel for the respondent may be allowed to appear and oppose: Collis v. Smith (9 C.L.R. 490 [1909]).

(c) Held by the High Court that where an interlocutory judgment is regular, an application to set it aside should be supported by an affidavit of merits, and, although leave to appeal to the High Court from an interlocutory judgment of the Supreme Court of a State is granted almost as a matter of course, it will be refused where the proposed appeal is, on the material presented, hopeless: Rubin v. Eacott (15 C.L.R. 386 [1912]).

To whom notice to be given.

4. The notice of appeal shall be served upon all parties directly affected by the appeal (a), and it shall not be necessary to serve parties not so affected; but the High Court may direct notice of the appeal to be served on all or any parties to the cause or matter, or upon any person not a party, and in the meantime may postpone or adjourn the hearing of the appeal upon such terms as are just, and may give such judgment and make such order as might have been given or made if the persons served with such notice had been originally parties. Any notice of appeal may be amended at any time as the High Court thinks fit.

As to service; see Order LV.

As to amendment; see H.C.P. Act, ss. 23, 24.

(a) See note to r. 1, supra.

Machin v. Machin (21 C.L.R. 127 [1916]).

Time.

5. The notice of appeal must be served within the times following (a), respectively, that is to say:—

(1) If the appeal is of right, within twenty-one days from the date of the judgment appealed from;

(2) If the appeal is by leave or special leave of the High Court within twenty-one days from the date of the order of leave;

(3) In either case, if the appeal is from a judgment given or made before the commencement of the Judiciary Act 1903, within such extended time as the Court or a Justice allows.

The said respective periods shall be reckoned in the first case from the date when the judgment was pronounced, and in the second case, from the date when the order giving leave to appeal was made.

(a) For unsuccessful applications to extend time for filing notice of appeal, see Lever Bros., Ltd. v. G. Mowling & Son (5 C.L.R. 510 [1908]; XIV., A.L.R. 73 [1908]); Ryan v. Rounsevell (10 C.L.R. 176 [1910]); Delph Singh v. Karbowsky (18 C.L.R. 197 [1914]).

In Ryan v. Rounsevell a notice of appeal was, during vacation, when the offices of the High Court are open till one o'clock, handed to an officer of the Court at three o'clock in the afternoon on the last day of filing.

Title of proceedings for leave to appeal.

6. Affidavits intended to be used upon motions for leave or special leave to appeal, and orders giving leave or special leave to appeal, shall be entitled "In the High Court of Australia," and in the matter of the cause, which shall be described as pending in the Court from which the appeal is proposed to be brought.

Title of appeals

7. Notice of appeal and all subsequent proceedings on appeals shall be entitled "In the High Court of Australia," "On appeal from" the Court from which the appeal is brought, naming it; and shall also be entitled as between the party appellant and the party respondent.

Notice to Registrar

8. The appellant shall, within the time prescribed for serving the notice of appeal, file a copy of the notice of appeal in the Court from which the appeal is brought and also in the Registry of the High Court at the seat of Government of the State in which the decision appealed from was given.

The fee payable on filing a copy of notice or motion instituting an appeal is 5 .

Appealable nature of judgment to be shown by affidavit

9. When the appeal is not brought by leave or special leave of the High Court, the appellant shall file with the notice of appeal an affidavit setting out sufficient facts to show that the judgment is one from which an appeal lies to the High Court without either leave or special leave (a) and shall file a copy of the affidavit with the copy of the notice of appeal in the Registry of the High Court.

(a) Held by the High Court that in an affidavit as to the appealable nature of a judgment filed under this rule, the statement that the judgment involves indirectly a question respecting property of the value of £300 is, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, a sufficient statement of the value: Ashton & Parsons, Ltd. v. Gould (7 C.L.R. 598 [1909]).

Appeal by leave.

10. When the appeal is brought by leave or special leave of the High Court, the notice of appeal shall state that it is so brought. A copy of the order giving leave to appeal shall be served with the notice of appeal, and a copy shall also be filed with the notice in the Court from which the appeal is brought.

Giving of unauthorized appeals.

11. When notice of appeal is given without the leave or special leave of the High Court in a case in which an appeal cannot be brought as of right (a), the Court from which the appeal is proposed to be brought or a Judge thereof, may set aside the notice (b).

(b) Held by Pring, J., of the Supreme Court of N.S.W., that this rule does not give a Judge of the Supreme Court of a State jurisdiction to set aside a notice of appeal from an interlocutory judgment where leave to appeal can be granted by the High Court or the Supreme Court: McKeon v. Miller (22 W.N. (N.S.W.) 22 [1905]).

Burnside, J., of the Supreme Court of Western Australia set aside a notice of appeal where leave had not been obtained. The Full Court of that State dismissed an appeal from his decision: Milne v. James (12 W.A. L.R. 111 [1910]).

On appeal to the High Court the appeal in this case was allowed, the High Court holding that on the facts of the case, appeal lay as of right: Milne v. James (13 C.L.R. 165 [1910]).

Security for costs of appeal.

12. Within three months after the service of notice of appeal, or such other time as is prescribed by an order giving leave to appeal (a), the appellant shall give the prescribed security (b), (c), for the costs of the appeal, and shall give notice thereof to the respondent (d).

Such security shall be given in the Court from which the appeal is brought.

If the security is not given within the prescribed time, the appeal shall be deemed to be abandoned (e).

As soon as it is given, the appeal shall be deemed to be duly instituted.

As to security; see H.C.P. Act, s. 35.

(a) Where security was lodged with an officer of the Court after hours on the last day for lodging security, the High Court overruled an objection that the security had not been lodged within the prescribed time: Maine v. Lyons (15 C.L.R. 671 [1913]; 19 A.L.R. 99 [1913]).

(b) The fact that a person who had a right to appeal from a decision of the Supreme Court of a State to the High Court and had given notice of such appeal was unable, through poverty to provide the funds necessary for an application to reduce or dispense with security for the costs of the appeal until it was practically too late to make such application before the time for giving such security had elapsed is not, by itself, a special circumstance which will justify the granting of special leave to appeal: Westcott v. Westcott (25 C.L.R. 495 [1918]).

(c) On an application to reduce the amount of or dispense with the security for costs of an appeal to the High Court from the Supreme Court of a State, where a similar application has already been refused, the matter is "res judicata": Fisk v. Anderson (19 C.L.R. 518 [1915]).

(d) Where security for costs of an appeal have been duly lodged within the time prescribed by this rule, the appeal will not be struck out merely because the appellant has not given the respondent notice of the lodging of the security until after the expiry of the time: Hedberg v. Woodhall (15 C.L.R. 531 [1913]; 19 A.L.R. 95 [1913]).

(e) An appellant omitted to lodge security within the prescribed time, and after the time had expired, applied to the High Court for extension of time and reduction of the security. The Court expressed a doubt whether they had power to extend the time owing to the appeal having lapsed, but, having regard to the special circumstances of the case, granted special leave to appeal and reduced the security conditionally upon the appellant setting down the appeal for the current sittings: Miller v. Major (4 C.L.R. 219 [1906]).

Held by Griffith, C.J., Barton and Gavan Duffy, J.J. (Isaacs and Rich, JJ., dissenting), that there is no jurisdiction in the High Court or a Justice thereof to extend the time prescribed by rule 12 of Section 3 of Part II. for giving security for the costs of an appeal from the Supreme Court of a State: Delph Singh v. Karbowsky (18 C.L.R. 197 [1914]).

Form of security.

13. Security may be given either by payment of money into Court or by bond with sureties to the satisfaction of the Prothonotary, Master, Registrar, or other proper officer of the Supreme Court.

Transmission of documents.

14. If the security is given within the prescribed time, the proper officer of the Court from which the appeal is brought shall forthwith transmit to the Registrar of the Registry of the High Court at the seat of Government of the State a certified copy of all such documents as are required for the hearing of the appeal (a), and, if the appeal is directed to be heard elsewhere than in the State, the Registrar shall transmit them to the Registrar of the Registry situated in the place where the appeal is to be heard.

A statement of the reasons of the Court for the decision shall, if practicable, be included in the documents so transmitted.

After the appeal has been disposed of they shall, if they have been received from another Registry, be returned to the Registry from which they were so received.

(a) As to what documents are required for the hearing of an appeal: Wilkie v. Wilkie (2 C.L.R. 383 [1905]; 11 A.L.R. (C.N.) 21 [1905]).

Setting down for appeal hearing

15. The appeal shall be set down for hearing at a sitting of the High Court appointed for hearing appeals at the place at which it is to be heard. It shall be set down for the first such sitting appointed to be held after the expiration of two months from the due institution of the appeal (a), unless the respondent consents to its being heard at an earlier sitting.

If the appellant does not set down the appeal for hearing at that sitting, and, three weeks at least before the day appointed for holding the sitting, give notice to the respondent that he has done so, unless the respondent consents to take shorter notice, the respondent, or any respondent, if more than one, may apply to a Full Court, at any place at which it may be sitting, by motion upon notice for an order dismissing the appeal for want of prosecution (b).

The fee payable on setting down an appeal from a judgment of the Supreme Court of a State is £2.

(a) Held by the High Court that where an appellant has a substantial ground of appeal, and has shown his bona fides by properly giving security and taking all other necessary steps in the prosecution of his appeal, the mere failure to set the appeal down for hearing at the proper sittings of the Court as prescribed for in this rule, is not in itself, sufficient ground for dismissing the appeal for want of prosecution: Brickwood v. Young (2 C.L.R. 74 [1904]).

(b) Held by the High Court that where an appellant to the High Court from the Supreme Court of a State who has given notice of appeal and lodged the security, has by slip failed to set down the appeal for hearing on the proper day, the appeal will not be dismissed for want of prosecution under this rule if, there is no reason to suppose that the appellant does not intend to prosecute the appeal, if the respondent has suffered no loss, of if the slip has had no effect by way of putting off the hearing of the appeal: Rankin v. Palmer (16 C.L.R. 285 [1912]).

Cross-appeals.

16. It shall not be necessary for a respondent to give notice of motion by way of cross appeal, but if a respondent intends upon the hearing of an appeal to contend that the decision appealed from should be varied, he shall within the time prescribed by the next following Rule, or such time as is allowed by special order of a Full Court in any case, give notice of his intention to such of the parties as may be affected by the contention (a) (b). The omission to give such notice shall not diminish the powers of the High Court when hearing the appeal; but may, in the discretion of the Court, be ground for an adjournment of the appeal or for a special order as to costs. A copy of the notice shall be filed in the Registry.

(a) Held by the High Court that where in one action two distinct causes of action are sued upon and judgment is given for the plaintiff as to one cause of action, and for the defendant as to the other, the fact that special leave to appeal to the High Court in respect of one of the causes of action is given to one of the parties does not entitle the other party to give a cross notice of appeal under this rule in respect of the other cause of action: Wilson v. Moss (8 C.L.R. 146 [1909]; 15 A.L.R. 131 [1909]).

(b) It is sufficient to give notice to the appellant that the respondent intends on the hearing of the appeal to support an order for a new trial upon grounds stated: Dun v. Macintosh (3 C.L.R. 1134 [1906]; 12 A.L.R. 581 [1906]).

17. Subject to any special order made in any case, notice by a respondent under the last preceding Rule shall be given one month before the day for which the appeal is set down for hearing.

Printed transcripts to be lodged.

18. Ten days at least before the day for which the appeal is set down for hearing the appellant shall, unless otherwise ordered, lodge in the Registry situated in the place where the appeal is to be heard six printed copies of the transcript of documents referred to in Rule 14 of this Order, and shall also serve four printed copies of such transcript upon each of the parties directly affected by the appeal or upon their solicitors (a) (b). Persons suing or defending jointly shall be deemed a single party for the purpose of this rule.

(a) Held by the High Court that an order made ex parte for extending the time for lodging the transcript will not be set aside if the respondent is in no way aggrieved by it: Rankin v. Palmer (16 C.L.R. 285 [1912]).

(b) As to what documents are required for the hearing of an appeal: Wilkie v. Wilkie (2 C.L.R. 383 [1905]).

Printing may be dispensed with.

19. The Court or a Justice may in any case upon such terms and conditions as it or he thinks fit dispense with the printing of such documents or of any portion thereof, and may direct a greater or less number of printed copies (a) to be lodged or served upon any of the said parties.

(a) Typewriting is not printing within the meaning of Section 3, r. 19, of the Appeal Rules: Peacock v. D. M. Osborne & Co. (No. 2) (13 A.L.R. 254 [1907]).

Interlocutory judgment and orders not appealed from not to bar relief.

20. An interlocutory judgment or order from which there has been no appeal shall not operate to prevent the Court, upon hearing an appeal, from giving such decision upon the appeal as is just.

Notes of ruling or direction.

21. If, upon the hearing of an appeal, a question arises as to the ruling or direction of a Judge to a jury, the Court shall have regard to the verified notes or other evidence, and to such other materials as the Court deems expedient.

Stay of proceedings.

22. When an appeal has been duly instituted, the execution of the judgment appealed from (a) shall be stayed (b). The High Court or a Justice may nevertheless give leave to prosecute the judgment upon the party desiring to prosecute it giving security to the satisfaction of the Court to abide the decision of the Court on the hearing of the appeal (c).

As to stay of proceedings, see H.C.P. Act, s. 38.

(a) A defendant obtained leave to defend an action in the Supreme Court of Victoria upon payment of £500 into Court. At a later date judgment in the action was given him and an order was made that he be at liberty at the expiration of fourteen days to withdraw the said sum of £500. An appeal to the High Court against the judgment of the Supreme Court was instituted, but it was held by the Supreme Court that the order for payment out of the money was not "execution of the judgment appealed from" within the meaning of this rule: Christie v. Robinson (1907 V.L.R. 118; 13 A.L.R. 288 [1907]).

(b) An appeal to the High Court from any part of a decree of a State Court suspends the execution of the whole decree, including the part against which there is no appeal. (Simpson, C.J., in Equity, N.S.W.). Bennett v. Browne (5 S.R. (N.S.W.) 541 [1905]; 22 W.N. (N.S.W.) 185).

Where an appeal to the High Court has been duly instituted from a judgment of the Supreme Court, that fact does oust the jurisdiction of the Full Court to hear an appeal to it from the same judgment, and the Full Court on that account alone will not refuse to hear such appeal.

Held that the word "Court" in r. 16, Order LVIII. of the Rules of the Supreme Court, 1906, includes the Full Court: O'Sullivan v. Morton (1911 V.L.R. 235; 17 A.L.R. 140 [1911]; 32 A.L.T. 172).

(c) Prior to an amendment made to this rule in 1907, applications for leave to proceed with the judgment of a State Court on giving security to abide an appeal to the High Court might be made to the Court appealed from. Since that amendment it has been held by Simpson, C.J., in Equity (N.S.W.), that applications for such leave must be made to the High Court: Maiden v. Maiden (25 W.N. (N.S.W.) 140 [1908]).

SECTION IV.

Appeals from Decisions of Inferior Courts.

1. Appeals to the High Court from decisions of inferior Courts of a State in the exercise of Federal jurisdiction shall be brought in the same manner and within the same times, and subject to the same conditions, if any, as to security or otherwise, as are respectively prescribed by the law of the State for bringing appeals from the same Courts to the Supreme Court of the State in like matters (a), (b), (c), (d), (e).

(a) This rule does not preclude the High Court from entertaining an appeal, by way of order to review, from the decision of a Police Magistrate exercising Federal jurisdiction, notwithstanding that an appeal would not lie to the Supreme Court in the case in question: Prentice v. Amalgamated Mining Employees' Association of Victoria and Tasmania (15 C.L.R. 235 [1912]; 18 A.L.R. 343 [1912]).

(b) The Court will construe sec. 39 (2) (b) of the Judiciary Act liberally in favour of a party desiring to appeal. Therefore where a rule nisi for a prohibition was sought in respect of a decision of an inferior Court exercising Federal jurisdiction, the High Court will not necessarily require to be satisfied that the decision was prima facie wrong, although it is the practice in some States for the Supreme Court to insist on being satisfied under similar circumstances: Ex parte Gordon (3 C.L.R. 724 [1906]; 12 A.L.R. 106 [1906]).

(c) The provisions in Section 148 of the Justices Act 1890 (Vict.), which limits the total amount of costs that can be allowed in the Supreme Court upon an order to review a decision of a Court of Petty Sessions to £20, does not apply to the costs of an appeal by way of order to review from a Court of Petty Sessions exercising Federal jurisdiction: Lyons v. Smart (6 C.L.R. 285 [1908]; 14 A.L.R. 619 [1908]).

(d) Section 139 of the Justices Act 1890 (Vict.) provides that on an appeal from a Court of Petty Sessions to a Court of General Sessions before whom the same is heard and determined shall, if so required by any party to such appeal, state the facts specially for the determination of the Supreme Court thereon, in which case that Court may determine the same.

Quære, whether under the Rules of the High Court, 1911, Part II., Sec. 4, r. 1, an appeal to the High Court from the Court of General Sessions exercising Federal jurisdiction may properly be brought by way of a case stated under that section: Symons v. Schiffmann (20 C.L.R. 277 [1910]).

Procedure in case of appeals by special leave.

2. When special leave is given to appeal to the High Court from a decision of an inferior Court in the exercise of Federal jurisdiction, the appeal shall, except so far as otherwise directed by the order giving special leave, be instituted in the same manner and within the same time as is prescribed by the last preceding Section of these Rules.

Notice to be filed in High Court.

3. When an appeal from an inferior Court is brought by notice of appeal the appellant shall within the term prescribed for giving the notice, file a copy thereof in the Court from which the appeal is brought, and also in the Registry of the High Court at the seat of Government of the State in which the decision appealed from was given.

Place of hearing.

4. Appeals from decisions of inferior Courts shall, unless otherwise directed by the Court or a Justice, be heard at the seat of Government of the State in which the decision was given. The Court or a Justice may direct that any such appeal shall be heard at the seat of Government of some other State.

Security.

5. When special leave is given to appeal from a decision of an inferior Court conditionally upon security being given by the appellant, such security shall be given in the Registry of the High Court at the seat of Government of the State.

Copy of proceedings to be filed.

6. Forthwith after the security has been given, or, if no security is required, forthwith after service of the notice of appeal, the appellant shall file in the Registry of the High Court of the State a verified copy of the proceedings of the Court from which the appeal is brought.

General provisions.

7. Except as herein or by law otherwise provided, the provisions of Section III. of these Rules shall apply to appeals to the High Court from decisions of inferior Courts.

SECTION IVA.

APPEALS FROM THE INTER-STATE COMMISSION.

Appeal by case stated.

Time for applying for leave.

1. Any party aggrieved by a decision of the Inter-State Commission who desires to appeal therefrom to the High Court on the ground that the decision is erroneous in point of law may, within twenty-one days after the pronouncing of the decision, apply in writing to the Commission to state and sign a case setting forth the facts and the questions of law arising thereon.

Notice to other parties.

2. Notice of such application shall be given within the same period to any other parties to the matter who may be affected by the proposed appeal.

Case to be filed in Principal Registry and notice given.

3. The case when stated and signed shall be sent to the Principal Registrar and filed by him in the Principal Registry.

Notice of such filing shall be given by the Principal Registrar to the proposed appellant and to the other parties to the appeal.

High Court to determine questions of law and make necessary Order.

4. The High Court shall hear and determine the question or questions of law arising upon the case, and may remit the matter to the Commission with the opinion of the High Court thereon, and may make such other order in relation to the matter as may seem just or expedient.

Case may be sent back for amendment.

5. The High Court may order a case to be sent back to the Commission for amendment, and thereupon the same shall be amended accordingly, and judgment shall be delivered by the High Court after it is amended.

SECTION V.

General Provisions.

Application of Rules relating to Original Jurisdiction.

1. The Rules of Court relating to the procedure of the Court in its Original Jurisdiction shall, so far as they are respectively applicable to appeals, apply to the procedure of the Court in its Appellate Jurisdiction. (a).

(a) Held by the High Court that where a copy of notice of appeal is not filed within the prescribed time, this rule does not apply, and therefore the High Court cannot under Part I., Order LIII., r. 6, enlarge or abridge the time for the copy of the notice of appeal: Ryan v. Rounsevell (10 C.L.R. 176 [1910]); Lever Bros., Ltd. v. G. Mowling & Son (5 C.L.R. 510 [1908]; 14 A.L.R. 73 [1908]).

In Delph Singh v. Karbowsky (18 C.L.R. 197 [1914]), it was held that the words "Procedure of the Court in the Appellate Jurisdiction" relate only to interlocutory proceedings in an appeal which was duly instituted.

Expediting appeals.

2. Notwithstanding anything contained in these Rules the Court or a Justice may expedite the hearing of any appeal of which notice has been filed in the High Court, whether the appeal has been duly instituted or not, and for that purpose may order the appeal to be set down for hearing on any day appointed for the Court to sit to hear appeals, and may abridge the time within which security (a) is to be given, or the length of notice to be given to the respondent to such extent and upon such terms as the justice of the case may require.

A like order may be made on granting leave or special leave to appeal.

(a) On an application to reduce the amount or dispense with the security for the costs of an appeal to the High Court from the Supreme Court of a State, where a similar application was refused, the matter is "res judicata": Fisk v. Anderson (19 C.L.R. 518 [1915]).

Dismissal for want of prosecution on appellant's application.

3. An order dismissing an appeal with costs for want of prosecution may be drawn up and signed by the Registrar on the application of the appellant without other warrant than this rule.

Provided that if notice of cross appeal or notice of intention to move to vary the decision appealed from has been given the order shall not be drawn up without the consent of the party respondent.
